Trustees dropped in vote recount

Although a recount of votes cast in the April 5 Nameki Township election will take place within the next week, trustee votes will not be counted under a decision announced Tuesday by Circuit Judge Victor Mosele, acting chief judge of the Third Judicial Circuit.

The order may end hopes of Mrs. Helen Hawkins, Joe Boyer and others of a recount which they hoped would show them victorious as trustees. Whether or not the order could be appealed to the Appellate Court at Mount Vernon is questionable, Mosele told the Press-Record.

A recount still will be on votes cast for the township supervisor and assessor. Both sides in the supervisor's race are predicting they will be successful. In the initial vote tally, Harold Davis defeated the incumbent superintendent, Louis Whitsell, by only 35 votes, and Carl Macios was re-elected assessor over Loren Madison by 41 votes. Nearly 3,500 votes were cast.

Although that recount was to be conducted Friday, a precise date still was uncertain today, because attorney H. Carl Runge Jr., one of those who is to recount the votes, is defending a case in Southern Illinois and it is not known if he will be available tomorrow or Saturday.

Other members appointed by Mosele to recount the votes are attorneys David Adamson and Robert Hennessy.

Runge is attorney for Whitsell, Madison and trustee candidates Kenneth Gieson, Harlan Pervan and Mrs. Hawkins.

Adamson is attorney for Davis, Macios and seated trustees W. Lee Adams, Norman Hessler and Jerry Adams. Hennessy entered the case on behalf of Boyer.

Most observers at a court-ordered discovery review of the ballots April 23 felt Mrs. Hawkins and Andy Besserman received more votes than Jerry Adams and would be seated if a formal vote recount was held.

Since Besserman and Mrs. Hawkins received an identical number of votes for the fourth trustee position in the initial tally, a drawing of lots determine which would be seated and Besserman was the winner.

After the discovery review, Runge filed suit on behalf of Whitsell, Madison, Gieson, Mrs. Hawkins and Pervan.

Failure of that suit to mention Boyer and Besserman was cited by Adamson as cause to have the suit dismissed and he filed a formal motion to that effect with Mosele.

He also cited several rulings in similar cases in Illinois in which such suits were thrown out by the court because they had failed to "join all parties."

Questioned by the Press-Record on the issue, Adamson said if a vote recount on the trustees was held and

$10,000 loot is recovered

Three men have been charged and two others are being sought in connection with a series of thefts from Bert's Audio-TV Showroom, 1910 Delmar Ave., between June 16 and 21. About $10,000 worth of televisions, stereo equipment and citizens' band radios have been recovered in the investigation.

Charged with three felony counts of theft each are Mark J. McManis, 19, Alton, and Robert M. Gayan, 30, Godfrey, who allegedly stole items from the Bert's stores in Granite City and East Alton.

Charged with one felony count of theft is Kenneth W. Stover, 30, Alton, a former employee at Bert's stores.

Police allege that on three different occasions between June 16 and 21, Stover opened a Bert's store for four friends who moved televisions sets, stereos and other equipment to their vans and then kept the items.

The investigation began last week after a television stolen from the Granite City store was located at a girl's home and the girl alleged her former boyfriend, Stover, gave the television to her.

A warrant was approved charging Stover with theft and Granite City detectives went to Alton Monday to arrest him.

He was not at home, but officers received a tip he was at the home of Robert M. Gayan, 30, Godfrey, and went to Godfrey at 1:15 p.m. Monday where

July 4th Festival to open

A fireworks display, teen dance and a country music show, all without charge to the viewers and participants, are among the activities planned for the 1977 Fourth of July Festival at Wilson Park.

Sponsored annually by the Granite City Park District, the Fourth of July Festival starts at 6 o'clock tonight with the midway rides in operation until 11 p.m.

Festival hours for the remaining days are—Friday, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. and 6 p.m. until 11 p.m.; and Saturday, Sunday and Monday, 1 p.m. until 11 p.m.

Children's matinees are scheduled between 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. Friday and Sunday, when all carnival rides are reduced in price to 25 cents.

Shutters the Clown will visit with the youngsters from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Friday, and Happy the Clown will be on the festival grounds from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday.

Saturday night's "Teen Dance," beginning at 7:30 at the Wilson Park ice rink pavilion, is expected to attract a large number of young people. Live music will be furnished for dancing.

The traditional fireworks extravaganza, starting promptly at 9 p.m. Monday (July 4), probably will draw an estimated crowd of 20,000 spectators.

Many viewers provide their own lawn chairs and blankets, preferring to witness the

GC Council blocked

By HARRY BARNES

Press-Record Staff Writer
For the second time in a month, virtually all Granite City Council business was blocked Tuesday night under an old ordinance that limits the type of council operations that can be undertaken in the council's third meeting of the month.

The council adjourned 45 minutes after it had convened at 8 p.m., with a heavy schedule of ordinances still to be presented along with a tentative draft of the city's 1977-78 operating budget.

Adjournment came after a highly controversial discussion of a resolution that had to be passed by the council Tuesday night to meet deadline requirements for a $670,000 federal grant to be used in construction of a new police and jail complex.

Only by a point of special privilege under Roberts Rules of Order was the council able to obtain passage of the resolution. The point of special privilege, called for by Alderman Clyde Boyd, advanced the federal grant resolution from the stack of ordinances awaiting action to permit a council vote on that item.

After City Clerk Robert Stevens presented council communications at the opening of Tuesday night's meeting, bills presented for payment by Alderman Paul Ray Bowler, chairman of the Finance Committee, were approved without opposition. The Finance Committee is the first on the list of 16 council committees which

River Road opens July 29

Federal Aid Route 151 (The Great River Road) will be opened between Granite City and Venice on July 29, Illinois district highway officials said Wednesday.

The opening target date is subject to weather conditions, but unless there is a prolonged interruption in remaining work on the project, it is expected to be ready for use by that date, according to James Hook, Illinois district engineer at Fairview Heights. Paving of the stretch between Niedringhaus Avenue in Granite City and McKinley Bridge in Venice has been completed. The only work remaining, Hook said, is completion of some stretches of the shoulders and installation of about 3,000 feet of guardrail.

Sign installation and striping also has to be completed before the new highway can be opened. The opening later this month will extend FA Route 151 from Granite City to Venice where it will connect with relocated Broadway and approaches to McKinley Bridge.

Consequently it is expected to be a vital factor in expediting traffic not only from the Quad-

City area, enroute to St. Louis, but also over Broadway in Venice.

The construction work has been done by the Heoffken Bros. Contracting Co. of Belleville on a bid of $4,304,215 which was awarded in October 1975. Construction work began a month later.

Heoffken Bros. also had the contract for construction of the overpass at Chicago Avenue, a vital link in the highway connection between Granite City and Venice. The overpass job was done under a contract totaling $2,993,189.

The last previous stretch of FA Route 151 between West Pontoon Road and Niedringhaus was opened in April 1970.

That section of the highway was built by Sangamo Construction Co. of Springfield under a bid of $2.6 million.

The Great River Road is designed to eventually extend southward from Venice, generally following the present Illinois Route 3, to continue through Brooklynn to East St. Louis.

Subsidized Steel limit is sought

Granite City Steel employees and their families—as well as other local residents—are being asked by the company and the United Steelworkers union to send postcards to President Jimmy Carter in Washington protesting "unfair competition by foreign governments" shipping steel into the United States.

Letters have been sent to the homes of GC Steel employees, and a full-page paid advertisement is appearing in the Press-Record today, explaining what is regarded as the seriousness of the situation. The advertisement is signed jointly by National Steel President Howard M. "Pete" Love and United Steelworkers District 34 Director Buddy Davis.

They note that "the publicity campaign isn't just local. Each member company of the American Iron and Steel Institute is participating, and National Steel has been assigned responsibility for the Detroit and St. Louis areas."

"Bulletin board messages around the steel plant also remind employees about the import awareness program, urging employees to fight foreign steel by writing President Carter now."

GC Steel President James V. Stack also has made a personal appeal to employees via Direct Line, the company's telephone-information system. He said in part:

"We're estimating imports of 16 million tons this year. Good chance of showers and thunderstorms today with high in the upper 80s. Showers ending tonight. Low tonight in mid-60s. Sunny and pleasant Friday. High in mid-80s. Saturday through Monday chance for period or two of thunder showers. Continued warm with lows in the 60s and highs in the mid-80s to low 90s during the period."

"To put that in perspective, that's approximately twice what National Steel will ship this year."

"It seems that many of the foreign governments are encouraging their steel mills to produce as much as they can in order to assure full employment—even to the point of making up for the financial losses that might result—because in order to sell the steel, they've got to sell it at lower prices than we or they can produce it for."

"Our government doesn't do this, and we don't want it to. We believe in fair trade."

"All we want is for our government to give us a fair shake in trying to reduce the flow of subsidized foreign steel into this country."

The obvious consequence if the steel imports continue

Investigators back

(Seventh of a series on politics in Madison County)
"Look out, 'cause old Mac is back in town," went the lyrics when the late Bobby Darin popularized an earlier song, "Mac the Knife," a few years ago.

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents were back in Madison County for a third time on Tuesday, apparently as a prelude to resumption of federal grand jury testimony in Springfield.

The impact of the investigation could be explosive in terms of future political ramifications.

As exclusively disclosed by the Press-Record on Dec. 16, 1976, an intensive investigation by federal agencies had been conducted, with the expectation that it would lead to grand jury activity.

Testimony to the jury began two weeks ago, on June 15. The third wave of federal interviews, occurring this week, is regarded as a part of the task of expanding on and confirming original allegations.

As asserted here last December, the questioning involves a department of the Madison County government and a medium-sized city within the county. The department was disclosed this spring to be the sheriff's department.

This week's return of the investigators focused on the "medium-sized city."

Precisely who are making what allegations is not being divulged by federal authorities. Both the FBI and the Internal Revenue Service's Intelligence Division are participating.

As noted, political shockwaves inevitably develop from such a long and comprehensive investigation.

An indication of the official interest that has been directed toward supposed federal witnesses is provided by Madison County sheriff's department shift commander log entries.

It was noted on the third shift May 25: "Midnight shift. If we are unable to contact Deputy (Randall) Lamb during our

UNITED WAY WORKSHOP. More than 55 agency administrators and board members give their attention to the workshop instructions Tuesday morning in the Carpenters' District Council hall, 901 W. Chain of Rocks Road. The workshop, first of a series of three, focused primarily on the planning function of the agencies as a way of making the agencies more efficient and effective. David Fox, planning and priorities chairman, coordinated the workshop at which a luncheon was served. July 19 has been set for the second workshop which will be held in the Carpenters' Hall.

Granite 650 fete fathers

Granite Chapter 650, Order of the Eastern Star, met during the weekend at the Masonic Temple, and honored all fathers present and awarded 25-year pins to three members.

Mrs. Maxine Compton, worthy matron and Charles Young, worthy patron, presided at the session. They presented gifts to the fathers as a belated fathers day observance.

Mrs. Compton honored Mrs. Peggy Bargel with a 25-year pin and Mrs. Hannah Kleinschmidt, past matron in 1966, gave similar pins to Lloyd Lewis who served as worthy patron in 1966 and to Mrs. Mary Ellen Lewis.

Escorted and introduced were grand lecturers Hazel Wood, Mary Bibrey, Arline Fox, grand chaplain committee members and Mrs. Bess Henley, past grand Martha of 1942.

Mrs. Compton announced Mr. and Mrs. Brinley (Fairy) Bodnar celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary and this week Mr. and Mrs. Fern (Sue) Stein marked their 60th wedding anniversary.

Protem officers for the evening were Frances Williams, Louise Meador and Florence Spahr.

Plans were completed to hold initiation ceremony for new members at the Aug. 26 meeting.

Mrs. Louise Orr and her committee provided the dining room decorations and Mrs. Mary Ann DeHart was in charge of refreshments. Assisting were Cleveland Cox, Charles and Dora Youngs, Clifford Hickey, Peggy Gibbons, Guyla Stuart, Wanda Bartling and Glenajean Olson.

Pinochle club honors member

Mrs. Katie Hommert, 2732 Michigan Ave., entertained the Butterfly Club Tuesday evening, as members honored Mrs. Thelma Schmidt on her birthday and presented her with gifts.

During the evening pinochle games were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Nell Talley, Mrs. Mary Lou Clausen, Mrs. Juanita Rosenberg and Mrs. Lorraine McIlroy.

A dessert luncheon was served by the hostess to those named and to Mrs. Irene Willis, Mrs. Harriet Hoff and Mrs. Hazel Rollins. Mrs. Willis will host the first meeting in September.

Parents Club 470 plan events

The general meetings of Parents Without Partners, Granite City Chapter 470, will be held on July 27 and Aug. 24, at St. John United Church of Christ, 2801 Nameoki Road, the president Mrs. Arline Borer announces.

Registration begins at 7 p.m. with the business session to convene at 7:30 p.m. and guests are welcome, the president added.

Mrs. Borer reports adult activities for July and August include Country western show at Wilson Park ice rink on July 3; old movie at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, July 7; coed volleyball at Wilson Park ice rink, July 11; St. Louis Strassenfest, July 16; volleyball, July 18 and July 25; Gateway regional conference dance, July 23; movie at SIU, July 28.

Card party, Aug. 7, at Eavy Tyler; area chapter dance, Aug. 13; dance lessons at Sonny's and Char's, Aug. 17; dinner at Red Lobster, Aug. 26; and swim party, Aug. 27, at Sylvia Massman, 3306 Village Lane.

RIVER FEST DISCOUNT FOR AMOCO EMPLOYEES

Amoco Oil, in Wood River, has come up with a plan for a new employee benefit — an employee discount for the Mississippi River Festival held on the SIUE campus.

The special employee discount, which offers 50 per cent off the admission price to a special series of Festival performances, is, according to Festival Director Lyle Ward, "a limited pilot program for regional industry. We'll be watching it closely to see how it does." The employees at Amoco will attend any one of four family specials, four St. Louis Symphony nights, three dance performances, three evenings of chamber music, or any of four nights of theater.

SHOCKING PINK lapel buttons can be seen on many prominent men in the area as the Granite City Optimist and Granite City Rotary Clubs prepare for their joint Camelot Auction.

Camelot plans are underway

With a goal of $10,000 for charity, the Granite City Rotary and Optimist clubs again have put the wheels of the Camelot Auction into gear.
 The event aimed at raising money for worthwhile projects that benefit the area is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 1, at the Sunset Hill Country Club. It will open with a buffet dinner at 6:30 p.m., then "everything including the kitchen sink" will go up for sale.

 Items range in price from $5 and $10 up to several hundred. Members of the two service clubs received their Camelot packets last week with tickets, Camelot buttons and solicitation lists.
 Area business men, industry and organizations contribute items at cost or free to the clubs for auctioning.
 A "large" "shocking pink" button must be worn by Rotarians on Tuesday and Optimists on Thursday to help publicize the event. If a member fails to wear the Camelot button the member is fined by his respective club.
 Tickets are $12 each and are limited.
 Persons wishing tickets are encouraged to purchase them early to avoid disappointment to what in the past has been a "sold out" event.
 Co-chairmen of Camelot are Rotarians Paul Mills and Bob Lombardi and Optimists John McDonald and Dr. Scott Hendrickson.

Mrs. Ida Clark dies at 82
 Mrs. Ida M. (Pugh) Clark, 82, of Colonades Nursing Home, died there at 6:30 p.m. Monday. She had been ill nine years.
 She was born in Montpelier, Ind., and resided in this area almost all of her life.
 Mrs. Clark was a charter member of Granite Chapter 650, Order of the Eastern Star.
 Her husband, Charles "Cy" Clark, died in 1923.
 Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Ernest (Mary Jayne) Eli of Granite City and Mrs. Michael (Dolores) Carrano of Miami Lakes, Fla., and five grandchildren.
 Funeral services were held today. Details are given in the obituary column.

Youth escapes, issue warrant

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of a Granite City youth who allegedly escaped from Granite City police after being charged with driving a station wagon through the freshly seeded lawn at the home of Mrs. Raymond O'Beir, 2010 Thirtieth St., at 11:50 p.m. Monday.

The victim gave police a license number of the station wagon and officers went to the owner's home in the 1200 block of Granite Avenue, finding the owner and another youth in the car.

The owner said he had been a passenger in the car and the other youth admitted being the driver when the car went through the yard. Police arrested the driver, but agreed to let him go into his home and awake his father to inform him of the arrest.

When the youth got in the house, he fled out the rear door. Warrants alleging escape and criminal damage to property have been issued, but the youth has not been located.

Leash laws to be enforced

Madison Humane Officer Sam Economy has expressed concern over the number of dogs and cats being allowed to run loose in the city of Madison.

"I really would think a person owning a dog or cat would, for the animal's own protection, keep it in a fenced yard, kennel, or chained rather than let it run loose. It bothers me to find a nice dog killed by an auto because the owner did not take proper care of it," Economy said.

Chief of Police Donald L. Bridick noted that under city ordinance $60 it is unlawful for any dog or cat to run at large in the city. The animals must be within a fenced yard or tied.

The chief said that violation of the leash law could bring a fine of up to $100.

Chief Bridick said he has instructed Economy to enforce the ordinance which also carries a penalty if the dog or cat is on the streets without proper tags and the animal also must have rabie shots.

With the Fourth of July weekend approaching many Quad-Cityans will enjoy a three-day holiday.

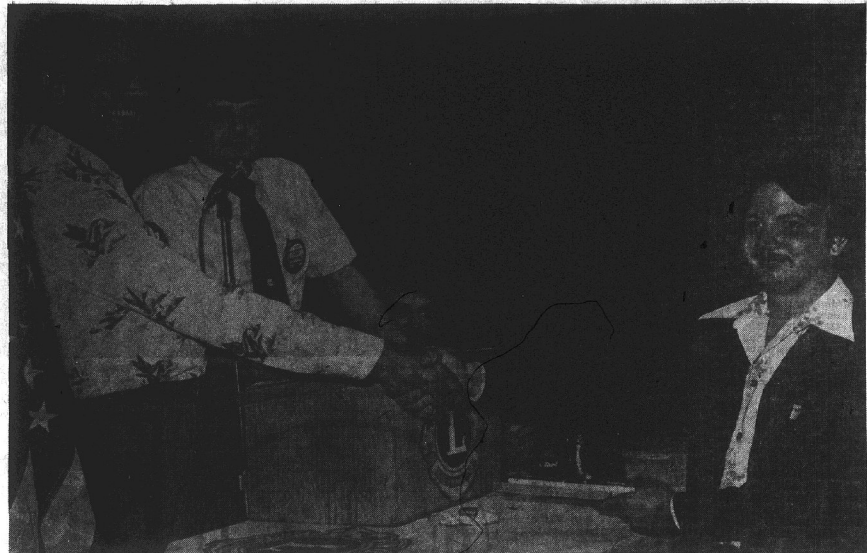

All banks and savings and loan firms will close at their regular time on Friday and not reopen until Tuesday morning. There will be no mail delivery on Monday. However, the post offices will observe normal weekend hours and the lobbies will be open on Monday for box patrons.

All local, county, state and federal government offices will close for the three-day weekend, reopening Tuesday.

Most stores in the downtown areas will be closed, although many shopping center stores will be open.

The Granite City Press-Record will publish on Tuesday.

Arrest in fireworks sale

Based upon information that fireworks were being sold out of a West Granite City home, Granite City police obtained a search warrant Monday evening and arrested James S. Cook, 27, of 2831 Cayuga St., at his home, and charged him with selling fireworks.

Although there allegedly were only a few fireworks in the Cook home when the search warrant was executed, an investigation led to the recovery of 3,023 firecrackers and 1,309 other fireworks, including bottle rockets, Roman candles and small noise bombs, police said.

Safety break station at I-270 and 111

A "safety break" for weary travelers during the Fourth of July weekend will be operated by the Illinois Free Spirits React Team of the Quad-City area, adjacent to Interstate 270 and Highway 111 exit, starting at 4 p.m. Friday.

"Our aim is to get travelers off the highway long enough to wake them up with a coffee break," according to Louis Demet of Granite City, a React director.

The local area project is one of more than 1,700 volunteer groups affiliated with React International Safety Break Program, which has the support of the American Trucking Association and law enforcement agencies.

Area residents not traveling the highway during the Fourth of July holiday are invited to visit the "safety break" station to observe the team in action and enjoy free refreshments. Dement said. The station will be open through midnight, Monday, July 4.

Approve Chouteau Budgets

The Chouteau Town Board of Trustees held a public hearing Monday night on its town budgets and revised road and bridge budgets—but no one except the township officials attended.

Since there were no comments made at the public hearing on the budgets, the public hearings were quickly adjourned and the board reconvened to pass the budgets unchanged from the budgets posted 30 days ago in the township offices at 825 Thorngate Drive, Mitchell.

Approved was a town fund budget totaling $67,770, a general assistance budget of $48,800 and a revenue sharing budget of $95,000. All of the revenue sharing is devoted to finishing construction of the new town hall and community center building and for the first-year administration of activities in that building.

Road department budgets, amended from their approval previously, totaled $159,510, including $78,510 for the general road and bridge fund, $80,000 for the permanent road fund, $15,000 for the equipment and building fund, and $7,000 for municipal retirement.

Town fund appropriations are: $65,245 for administration; $2,025 for elections; and $500 for contingencies for a total of $67,770.

General assistance budget items include: $10,000 for a home relief; $8,000 for institutional care, and $500 for contingencies, for a total of $48,800. The amended general road and bridge fund includes $13,310 for administration, $3,000 for the construction of new roads, $22,450 for maintenance of roads, $27,500 for oiling roads, $6,250 for township buildings (including $3,500 for paving the parking lot of the adjoining town hall and highway garage buildings), and $1,000 for contingencies for a total of $78,510.

The revised permanent road fund includes $34,000 for the maintenance of hard roads ($5,000 of which is to repair equipment), and $25,000 for the maintenance of earth roads (including $3,000 for the repair of equipment), for a total of $59,000.

The $15,000 equipment and building fund purchase is earmarked entirely for equipment purchases. The $7,000 for municipal retirement is devoted to the township's share of payments to the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund, which provides benefits for township employees when they retire.

shift, have someone try all night at his residence and advise him to be in . . . office at 9 a.m. Thursday, May 26, 1977.

"Additional — It has now been advised that a squad car is to check his residence every half-hour until 9 a.m. At that time, a squad car is to stay at his residence until he is relieved or Deputy Lamb is contacted. (Also, make a UOR report) on checking of the house, per orders of the . . ."

"On May 26, the 12-to-8 shift, 12:50 a.m. The shift commander log relayed orders to have a day shift car sit at Deputy Lamb's residence until he is contacted. "Advise Lamb to be at the office to see . . . within 60 minutes after being contacted, and bring his badge and gun. "5 a.m. Deputy . . . is outside Deputy Lamb's residence, as per orders of . . . until relieved by a day shift car."

Lamb was interviewed on television May 25 regarding his knowledge of federal agents' interest in sheriff department occurrences.

His wife, Patricia, told the Press-Record this week, "There definitely is a major investigation going on in this county. "If certain officials have nothing to hide, why haven't they attempted to aid the federal agencies in their investigation instead of making statements like the IRS and FBI make their living by harassing people. "These are very unprofessional statements, since all the agencies involved are in various phases of law enforcement. They should maintain suitable working relationships with each other. "Two or three bad apples in the barrel don't mean the whole barrel is rotten. "In 1974, my husband was called into a meeting with two members of the sheriff department. "At this meeting, he was told that it had come to their attention that my husband had written a letter to the attorney general's office and, if it were true, he would be suspended and then fired. "There was in fact a letter, signed by the name of another member of the department. "I turned a copy of this letter over to . . . (a high ranking member of the sheriff department). "The discovery of the letter, the person whose name was at the end of the letter has been promoted in rank. Don't taxpayers wonder why he was promoted, instead of suspended and fired as my husband was told he would be? "Why don't some speak for themselves instead of through a spokesman? Only worried and scared people hide from making statements to the public. "As far as gambling in this county is concerned, it may not be organized but it definitely is here, for I've seen it with my own eyes. It was more than nickel-and-dime stakes. "High-ranking officials deny information placed before them concerning corruption, and yet a grand jury has been convened. "On the transfer of Deputies Lamb and (Richard) Anderson, it is hard to believe that two men who have years of experience would be less valuable than deputies who have no experience at all. "A deputy has a wreck while on duty and is suspended for five days. But one who is a jailer and perhaps partly responsible for an attempted jail break receives no reprimand at all. It's time people of Madison County wake up and take part in finding out who, where and what their tax dollars and their power are going for. It's time deputies stand up and be counted instead of being pushed into a corner," Mrs. Lamb concluded.

Besserman was found to have failed in his election bid, he will be suspended without ever having had a chance to defend his position in court.

"On the other side, should the record show Boyer elected, he would be seated without ever having been a party to the suit for a recount, Adamson explained.

He said even Associate Judge Philip Barwick's attempts to join all three suits would not have brought Besserman into the suits, either as a petitioner or a respondent.

Barwick originally was assigned to decide the issue, but Adamson objected for unspecified reasons and requested a change in judge assignment.

Mosele then decided to hear the case himself and quickly moved to appoint a committee to recount the votes. He also set a July 7 date for a hearing on Adamson's motion to dismiss Runge's case.

After reviewing the cases, Adamson cited as precedent for dismissing the suit, Mosele ruled in favor of the motion without having the hearing.

Mosele said the strength of the precedents cited by Adamson would have overwhelmed any pleas which could have been made at the hearing, so he made his ruling and cancelled the July 7 hearing.

After learning of the ruling, Mrs. Hawkins said Wednesday, "I have been taken!" She contacted Runge's office and related Runge was reached and left a message for her that the order is not final and for her not to worry about it.

She said that if the order is final, "I will have been robbed of the seat which I won fairly in the April 5 election. "I knew all along that I wasn't going to come out ahead in this thing, even though I am a winner. I just knew they were going to do it to me, the way politics are in Madison County."

She also charged, "This is discrimination because I am a woman. This is not the end of this. I will continue my fight."

LOOT PARKED AUTO
Items valued at about $382 voting stolen from the auto of Betty Smith, Ferguson, Mo., parked at East 28th Street and Nameoki Road. It was discovered at 10:15 a.m. Tuesday. The owner left the auto at that location due to mechanical problems and returned to find a citizens' band radio and antenna, a combination radio and tape player and 10 tape recordings had been stolen.

Man hurt in fall to leave hospital after six months

Raymond Smith Jr., 20, of 2801 Wayne Ave., who was injured critically in a fall at the Granite City Steel coke ovens Dec. 13, is to be released in good condition tomorrow from Jewish Hospital, St. Louis.

His mother said he will be walking, despite predictions first that he would not live and later predictions he would be paralyzed. Smith was in intensive care at Firmin Deagle Hospital, St. Louis, 11 weeks before being transferred to Jewish Hospital. Cards and letters will be welcomed, Mrs. Smith said.

Three injured in one-car accident

Three persons were injured in a one-car accident during the weekend on Highway 111, one half mile north of East Chain of Rocks Road.

A car driven by Mack Daniel, 50, St. Louis, left the road went into the air for a short distance, landed on the front end and overturned.

Daniel was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital with chest pain, bruises to the lower legs and an eye injury.

Two passengers in the car, Robert Allen, 15, and Ernest Byrd, 24, both of St. Louis, were treated for minor injuries and released.

DAIRY PRODUCT GIFTS presented by the Madison County Young Farmer's Committee in observance of National Dairy Month, to the parents of the first baby born this month at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Dr. Shih-Chung Chang, left, receives a certificate for a seven-pound, 13-ounce round of cheese, which is the exact weight of the infant, LeAnn Marie Harley, from Lucille Schaefer. Parents of the new born, Mr. and Mrs. Richard (Kathy) Harley, 142 Briarwood Lane, center, with Susan Mueller, right, committee chairman.

Social Security, supplemental pay will rise 5.9% on July 1

Federal Social Security (SSA) and Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits are being increased 5.9 per cent effective July 1, in compliance with federal regulations.

Arthur F. Quern, Illinois public aid director, said, "Individuals who receive both SSA and SSI will not receive a 5.9 per cent increase in each benefit but the sum of the increases will total 5.9 per cent."

The SSI program is a program — administered by the Social Security Administration since 1974 — to provide eligible aged, blind or disabled persons a guaranteed minimum income nationwide regardless of their state or residence.

The maximum monthly SSI benefit for an individual with no other income will increase $10, from $167.80 to $177.80.

For an eligible couple, the monthly benefit will increase $15, from $251.70 to $266.70.

The department is currently providing a $10 increase in the standard of assistance for the aged, blind and disabled, thereby passing along the amount of the increase in SSI benefits to AABD (aged, blind, disabled) clients who receive State Supplemental Payments.

Quern also pointed out that because some SSA benefits will increase by more than $10 monthly, some public aid grants will be reduced. However, federal legislation mandates that grant recipients who lose their State Supplemental Payment solely because of the increase in SSA benefits will retain their Medicaid eligibility.

Notices have been sent to public aid recipients who also receive SSA benefits telling them of these changes.

2-DAY RUMMAGE SALE OF FINER FURNITURE AND CARPET

AFTER MOVING FURNITURE FROM ONE PLACE TO ANOTHER, YOU FINALLY RUN OUT OF HIDING PLACES! SO — HERE'S AN OLD-FASHIONED RUMMAGE SALE TO CLEAR OUT A LOT OF ITEMS THAT SHOULD HAVE BEEN GONE MONTHS AGO. WE WANT TO GET THEM OUT BECAUSE MID-YEAR INVENTORY STARTS MONDAY! USE OUR MODERN, FLEXIBLE CREDIT PLANS. (NO REFUNDS, NO EXCHANGES — ALL SALES FINAL.)

The sofa and love seat are gone... BUT THE CHAIR LINGERS ON! Herculan in grey and black stripe. Forget $139.95!

It's Yours $98
For

Some dum-dum sold the sofa away from its LOVE SEAT! Kroehler can't match it, but it's 100% nylon upholstery framed in walnut so instead of $299.95

Take It $199

Student insurance cost to increase

Parents electing to purchase school insurance for their sons and daughters in the Granite City public schools will pay more for insurance in the upcoming school year under an insurance bid selected by the Granite City Board of Education Tuesday night.

Faced with deciding between higher insurance premiums or greatly reduced benefits, the board, after lengthy discussion decided to accept a plan from the Manchester Insurance Co. calling for large increases in the premium paid by students, despite a change pro-rating the benefits so expenses over $300 will be shared with any other insurance coverage the student may have.

Dale C. Rea, assistant to the superintendent of schools, explained the higher premiums were reflected by six insurance policies studied by the district.

He noted the pro-rated provision of the policy will not affect the coverage received by students not covered by other insurance policies, and most parents purchasing the insurance for their children purchase it because they have no other insurance on the children.

By experience, most parents who already have insurance on their children do not purchase the school policy, Rea said.

Therefore, the pro-rated nature of the policy accepted by the board will not affect many students or parents, he said.

Four of the six companies submitting bids for student insurance submitted pro-rated bids, he added.

Rea also noted the school district must accept a total package of insurance available to all students in order to receive insurance for those involved in the football and other sports programs.

For students in elementary school, the insurance premium will increase from $5 per year last school year to $5 this school year. For students in the junior high and high schools, the premium will increase from $5 per year to $9 per year.

Summer services at St. Bartholomew's

Beginning Sunday, July 3, and continuing through Sept. 4, the hours of service at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, 22nd Street and Grand Avenue, will be changed, according to the Rev. Wilbur Lear.

For the two month period there will be no 10:45 a.m. service. The family eucharist will be held at 7:30 a.m. each Sunday and will be a full service with music and sermon. Saturday services are set at 5 p.m. and will be a low mass using the second order of the holy eucharist, Rev. Lear added.

During the summer, daily services will be held only when previously announced. Further information is available by calling 876-7245 or 876-9097, Rev. Lear advised.

Carlton Morger, 58, dies

Carlton Morger Jr., 58, of 2628 E. 27th St., ill for two years, died at 10 a.m. Tuesday at Jefferson Barracks Hospital, St. Louis.

He had been employed as a machinist welder for the Gulf, Mobil and Ohio Railroad for 32 years.

Mr. Morger was born in Bloomington, Ill., and a Granite City resident for 28 years. He had been ill for two years.

A member of St. John United Church of Christ, he also belonged to the Wade Barney Masonic Lodge 513 in Bloomington.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Dolores Morger; two children Mrs. Andrew (Linn) Olivo and Mrs. Phillip (Cheryl) Cottrill both of El Paso, Tex.; two sisters, Mrs. Madeline Howell and Mrs. Louise Iman both of Morton, Ill.; and two grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

TRUCK, CAMPER TAKEN

The pickup truck and camper shell of Donald Mitchell, 2637 W. 22nd St., was stolen from his home between 1 a.m. and 12:40 p.m. Tuesday. The truck is a dark brown over light brown 1977 GMC pickup with bucket seats, magnesium wheels and large outside mirrors. The camper shell is white with bubble windows.

Rites Monday for Joseph Milkovich

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Mary Queen of the Universe Church, Affton, Mo., for Joseph Milkovich, 52, of Affton, formerly of Granite City. He died at 12:10 p.m. Thursday, June 23, at St. Mary's Hospital, Richmond, Mo., where he had been a patient one week.

Born in Granite City he attended St. Joseph School and Granite City High School. He was employed at Colonial Tool and Die Co., St. Louis.

Mr. Milkovich moved to Missouri about 28 years ago. He was a member of the Crestwood Elks, South Side Brothers Lodge, Tool and Die Makers Local 688 and the Croatian Fraternal Union.

Survivors include two daughters, Kara and Joyce Milkovich both of Florissant, Mo.; his mother, Mrs. Sylvia Milkovich of Granite City; two brothers, Leo Milkovich of Granite City and Lody Milkovich of Edwardsville; two sisters, Mrs. Stephanie Graff of St. Louis and Mrs. Betty Haug of Granite City.

Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Edwardsville Township.

Arrest made in arson case

David Michael Lamborn, 24, of 2022 Rhodes St., Madison, was arrested Wednesday afternoon by Fairmont City police on a warrant signed by Associate Judge A. A. Maloessan charging Lamborn with solicitation to commit arson.

He was booked at 5:08 p.m. in Madison city jail.

Madison detectives have been working on the arson investigation since the Aug. 10, 1976, fire in the 2000 block of Rhodes Street of Madison.

Bond was set at $7,500 and Lamborn was held today in Madison city jail pending posting of bond or transfer to Madison County jail.

The case is still under investigation, according to a Madison detective.

Steel limit

Hundreds of suppliers that sell goods of all kinds to Granite City Steel also have been sent a letter signed jointly by President Stack and GCO Steel Director of Purchasing J. K. Carter.

It urges the suppliers to join in the campaign to send cards to the President, pointing out that suppliers to steel mills are also adversely affected by steel imports.

Owen Davis Sr. dies at 75

Owen W. Davis, Sr., 75, of 2101 Pontoon Road, a retired employee of Granite City Steel, died at 1 p.m. Wednesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital where he had been admitted six hours earlier.

Born in Alton, he resided in this area for 63 years. Mr. Davis was a member of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church and also belonged to the John Marshall Gun Club.

He was employed at Granite City Steel 49 years and retired in 1965.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Irene Davis; one son, Owen W. Davis Jr., of Granite City; two daughters, Mrs. Frank (Shirley) Wendel of Edwardsville and Mrs. William (Marilyn) Schooley of Granite City; a brother, John Davis of Alton; one sister, Mrs. Leona Cromer of Danville, Ill.; and nine grandchildren.

News notes

The Illinois Senate has approved a school budget of $1.841 billion, more than $33 million above the amount sought by Gov. James Thompson. Of that total, $1.831 billion would go to local school districts under the state's complex school aid formula. The bill will likely be picked apart for the second time by the House, which has the option of approving or rejecting amendments added by the Senate.

The ability of Illinois' anti-pollution agencies to regulate sulfur dioxide emissions would be sharply curtailed under legislation approved Wednesday by the Illinois House and sent to the governor. The bill says that no state regulations may be more restrictive than federal standards. An amendment which would have retained the state's authority to impose sulfur dioxide emission regulations stronger than federal standards was removed from the bill by an 80-78 vote.

"You are a liar and I hate liars," Sen. Sam Vadalabene (D-Edwardsville) yelled at Sen. Terry L. Bruce (D-Olney) on the Senate floor Tuesday. He was restrained by Senate Sergeant-At-Arms Joey Mack from physically attacking Bruce, who he believed told Sen. Kenneth Hall (D-East St. Louis) that Vadalabene was working the floor against Hall's bill to establish a foreign trade zone in East St. Louis. The measure passed by a narrow margin.

On a 55 to 35 vote, the Illinois General Assembly has voted to lift a 40-year-old ban on political contributions by insurance companies, despite opposition from the industry and the state Department of Insurance. Contributions would be allowed except to officers and employees of the executive branch of government, headed by the governor.

Carol M. Frederick of East

Alton, an officer of the Illinois Women's Political Caucus and the State Federation of Republican Women's Clubs, was named chairman of the Illinois Fair Employment Practices Commission by Gov. James R. Thompson Wednesday. The state agency investigates allegations of discrimination in hiring or promotion by Illinois businesses.

A bill aimed at ending the practice at some gasoline stations of displaying misleading prices by not including state and federal taxes was approved Tuesday by the Illinois Senate and sent to the governor. Violators would face a maximum $500 fine.

A total of $74,250 to fund a woman's advocate office within the governor's office was added to an omnibus appropriation bill by the Illinois House Tuesday. The Senate approved the Bureau of the Budget appropriation bill minus the $74,250 sought for an office containing a children's, women's and a consumer advocate.

The U.S. Supreme Court ruled Wednesday that states may not impose the death penalty for the crime of rape, saying death "is a disproportionate punishment for rape." Justice Byron R. White said in an opinion, "It is difficult to accept the notion, and we do not, that the rape, with or without aggravating circumstances, should be punished more heavily than the deliberate killer, as long as the rapist does not himself take the life of his victim." The decision was by a 7-2 vote of the court.

ARMS DEAL
In one of the largest single U.S. arms deals in Africa, the United States agreed on June 16, 1976, to sell 12 F-5 jet fighters to Kenya.

Set hearing on plan to cut Venice school bus service

The Venice Board of Education voted to eliminate in-town pupil bus transportation service for students in the 4th through 12th grades at its meeting last night.

The move would reduce the number of required buses from three to two and save $8,451 in actual cost.

To afford an opportunity for interested parents to provide further input prior to the decision being implemented, a public hearing on the issue was set for 7 p.m. Wednesday, July 13.

The board earlier changed its regular meeting schedule in July to the second and fourth Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. The sole bid received by the Venice School District for pupil transportation in the 1977-78 school year was submitted by R. W. Harmon & Sons, whose bid amounted to $37,710 to operate three buses and $27,288 for two buses.

The $8,451 savings would enable the district to purchase a proposed van-mibus to transport special education pupils and for extra-curricular activities, Supt. Robert N. Vickers explained.

Smaller children in kindergarten through third grade classes living in town still would be transported by bus, he stressed.

Supt. Vickers also reported the Title VII program in Venice has been refunded for the 1977-78 school year under a grant of $38,025, an increase of $87,648 over funds allocated to the district last year.

A tentative agreement has been reached on a two-year contract with Venice Local 965, American Federation of Teachers, subject to ratification by the teachers' union.

The board also set Wednesday, July 6, for a meeting with representatives of Building Services Employees Local 98 to initiate negotiations on a new contract with custodial and maintenance employees.

Whiteland Roofing Co. of Cahokia was awarded a contract to replace the roof on the 1954 addition of the Venice Grade School, office and bus garage, and to tar and repair flashing on the gymnasium roof, on a low bid of $7,857.

Contract awards also were authorized on bid to Mildred Jennings, Venice Gas and Oil, for gasoline and fuel oil, and the Range Poultry Co. of New Athens to supply eggs. Both were suppliers last year.

Six Olympia manual typewriters at a cost of $256 each, less $75 trade-in allowance, were authorized from Triangle Typewriter Co. of Church Women United of the Quad-Cities will sponsor four visits by the Red Cross Bloodmobile next week at two local churches. The public is being urged to participate.

Blood is urgently needed at any time, but the Fourth of July holiday weekend creates an even higher demand for blood, the sponsors said.

More than 600 people are expected to lose their lives in highway accidents during the next four days, an Illinois State Police officer said today.

Donor hours will be from 2 p.m. until 7 p.m. each day of the bloodmobile visit.

Stations will be located at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church, 1900 St. Clair Ave., Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, July 5, 6 and 7, and at St. Mary's Granite City, and a dictaphone transcriber unit, costing $380, was ordered purchased from another firm. All items are for use in the business-education department.

Textbook requisitions, amounting to $9,860, were approved by the board.

Bids for various equipment and materials at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center were reviewed by K. Duane Rankin, center administrator, and members of the purchasing committee.

The costliest item approved on the bid list was a computerized numerical control mill for $27,261.

All equipment at the adult vocational center is reimbursed by federal and state agencies.

July 4 fireworks, keep pets indoors

The number of missing dogs and cats reported around the Fourth of July holiday is considerably higher than at any other time of the year, Mrs. Marty Bridges of the Quad-City Association for Protection of Animals said today.

She urged pet owners to secure their animals indoors during the coming weekend.

Although a pet may be kept inside a fence, many dogs become very excited and some panic-stricken when fireworks are ignited nearby, and often will jump or climb over the barrier Mrs. Bridges said.

Noisy fireworks panic many pets, causing them to flee blindly in any direction. Frequently, the animals end up in an unfamiliar neighborhood and become lost, Mrs. Bridges said.

Rites for nephew of Madison man

Funeral services were conducted Thursday, June 23, at a funeral home in Union, Mo., for William Wyrick, 24, of Union, a nephew of Jack Blyue of Madison.

The young man who had resided with his uncle in Madison at various times, apparently drowned while fishing in the Missouri River, near Labadie, Mo., on June 19.

According to his mother, the boat her son was in struck a whirlpool and was turned over and the young man was caught in the pool and drowned.

Mr. Blyue and a member of the St. Charles rescue squad continued to search and recovered the body on Tuesday, June 21.

Other survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wyrick of Union, Mo.; five brothers, Ronald, Jim, John, Bobbie and Steve Wyrick, all at home.

Burial was in the church cemetery in Union.

Mrs. Mary Ferguson dies

Mrs. Mary C. Ferguson, 75, of 535 Lincoln Ave., a lifelong resident of Venice, died at 12:15 a.m. Tuesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

She was a member of the Venice Methodist Church and the Venice Senior Citizens Club.

Hits utility pole, driver injured

Dorothy J. Long Jackson, 604 E. Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell, was injured when her auto struck a fence and a utility pole on West Chain of Rocks Road one-quarter mile east of St. Thomas Road at 12:20 a.m. Wednesday.

She said her auto was east-bound and was forced from the road by another car which fled the scene. She went into the oncoming lane and then into the ditch to avoid a head-on collision.

In the ditch, the car went out of control and she struck the fence of Eastern Texas Motor Freight, damaging about 30 feet of fencing before her auto struck a utility pole and came to rest.

Dorothy Jackson was taken to Faith Hospital in St. Louis County for treatment of visible injuries.

Autos collide, drivers injured

Cecil Tomlin, 21, of 2145 State St. and Freddie Carter, 21, of St. Louis, were treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital after their cars collided at 8:45 a.m. Wednesday at Niedringhaus and Benton avenues.

Tomlin hit his head on the windshield, suffered a small cut to left knee, bruises to the forehead, headache and was admitted for observation.

Carter bruised his left thigh and elbow. He was released.

Mrs. Smith, 92, dies, leaves sons

Mrs. Lydia M. Smith, 92, of the Madison County Shelter Care Home, Edwardsville, died Tuesday at St. Joseph's Hospital in Highland.

Among the survivors are two sons, Robert Smith of Granite City and Willard Smith of Wood River.

Mrs. Smith was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Edwardsville.

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. today at an Edwardsville funeral home.

Man sets fire, damages auto

A witness watched while a man destroyed the auto of Barbara Thomas, 2128 Nevada Ave., in her driveway during the weekend.

The witness said the man first beat on the car with his fists, then raised the hood and did something to the engine. He then slashed all four tires, got inside the car and started a fire, and then ran away.

The fire destroyed the $175 car and caused about $50 damage to the siding of the home.

ARREST ON WARRANT
Burt Tomlinson, 23, of 2709 Iowa St., was arrested at Terrace Lane and Garfield Avenue at 3:20 p.m. Wednesday on a warrant from the Metropolitan Enforcement Group of Southwest Illinois (MEGSI) alleging unlawful delivery of a controlled substance. Information leading to issuance of the warrant was developed during a MEGSI undercover investigation.

REINHARDT—Realtor Sells—BETTER LIVING!

also belonged to the United Methodist Women's Society.

Mrs. Ferguson had been ill for nine months and a patient at the hospital for three days.

Her husband, Roy Ferguson Sr., died in April 1967.

Survivors include one son, Roy Ferguson Jr., of Venice; a daughter, Mrs. Floyd (Ruth) Hatcher of Granite City; one brother, John Vaughn of Granite City; two sisters, Miss Lillie Vaughn and Mrs. Maggie Brooks, both of Venice; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held today. Details are given in the obituary column.

Miss Weber dies today

Miss Louise Weber, 87, of 2323 Delmar Ave., ill for five and one-half years, died at 9 a.m. today at St. Joseph Hospital.

Highland, she had been a patient at St. Joseph's Hospital since 1962. Born in Pilot Knob, Mo., Miss Weber resided in this area 80 years.

She was a member of Concordia Lutheran Church.

Survivors include three sons, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hakebeck of Granite City, Mrs. Olga Simmons of Potosi, Mo., and Mrs. Mary Schell of Irons, Mo.; nieces, nephews and great-nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Mercer Mortuary, 1416 Niedringhaus Ave. For details call 876-4321.

Theft

they said Gavan was in the front seat leaving the detective's car down to tell them Stover was inside.

Stover came out and was arrested on the warrant. As officers started back toward Granite City, Stover allegedly told Gavan had possession of some stolen property.

They returned to Gavan's home and questioned Gavan who allegedly agreed to return some stolen items. Gavan was allowed to leave the scene in his vehicle and Gavan returned home a short time later with some stolen items, police alleged.

"After that, loot just began pouring in," Detective Tony Eck commented. Questioning of the two in custody led to information being developed which implicated four other persons, he said.

With the cooperation of about six Alton policemen, two of those were arrested. One has not been charged, but is under investigation by Alton police.

McManis was arrested in Alton and brought to Granite City where charges were filed against him. Alton police also charged him with a felony count of theft for a recent alleged theft from the Canteen Co. in Alton. He also is being held for questioning by Madison County authorities who want to ask him about the origin of stereo equipment McManis reported stolen during a burglary at his home recently.

Still being sought are one youth who allegedly aided in taking items from one of the stores and another youth who likely will be charged with two counts of possession of stolen property.

Yesterday in Granite City Hall, the detectives and an employee of Bert's store began the task of inventorying the items recovered.

Serial numbers were taken from seven color televisions worth from $800 to $1,100 each, four car stereos, two citizens' band radios, three turntables, two speakers and cabinets and two combination stereo-radio units.

GOLDEN WEDDING. Mr. and Mrs. Bennie H. (Mildred Duvall) Favier, 1720 Sycamore Ave., who are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. They were married July 2, 1927, at the City Hall in Venice and have lived their entire married lives in the Quad-Cities. A family dinner party is planned.

Bennie H. Favier to mark 50th anniversary

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie H. Favier, 1720 Sycamore Ave., will entertain the couple Saturday evening at a 50th anniversary dinner party.

Mr. and Mrs. Favier were married July 2, 1927, at the City Hall in Venice. They have lived in the Quad-Cities since their wedding day.

They are the parents of Herbert Eugene Favier, David Lee Favier and Mrs. James (Vivian Marie) Plaughter, all of Granite City.

The couple also has seven grandchildren.

Mr. Favier was born in Croestown, Mo. He worked more than 44 years in the Galvanizing Department at Granite City Steel's North Plant.

He has been retired since 1968.

Mrs. Favier, the former Mildred Duvall, is a native of Hershaw, Ky. Before retiring some years ago, she was employed at the former Union Starch and Refining Co., the former Newberry store and the former Strauss Men's store on 19th Street.

She also worked at Curtis-Wright Corp. as a machinist in World War II.

MRS. EDNA MCKAY HOSTS MEETING

The Past Noble Grand Club of Ann Rutledge 47 met Tuesday at noon in the home of Mrs. Edna McKay for a luncheon meeting. During the afternoon a business meeting was conducted followed by card games. Those winning prizes were Mrs. Marvel Glover, Mrs. Irene Hendricks and Mrs. Vera Schillinger. Mrs. Schillinger will host the July 26 meeting.

Music program tonight at the Gospel Mission

A special musical program, featuring the Tri-City Park Christian Ambassadors, will be presented at 7 p.m. today (Thursday) at the Gospel Mission, 2014 E. 20th St.

The public is invited to attend. Mrs. Bethel J. Davis, mission superintendent, said this week. Ample parking facilities are available at the rear of the mission building, reached by turning off 20th Street at either Park or Omaha streets.

Philip Green, leader of the Christian Ambassadors, will serve as master-of-ceremonies at tonight's concert. Mike Hildreth will perform a guitar solo.

Other soloists will include Tony Johnson, Miss Cindy Hochuli, Miss Tracy Tracy and Miss Lucinda Freeman.

A duet will be presented by Miss Jodi Alexander and Miss Christy Hayes.

Selections also will be sung by a quartet, consisting of Kevin Rainwater, Don Hayes Jr., Mike Knapp and Tony Johnson.

Mrs. William Rainwater serves as pianist for the young people's group, and Mrs. Don Hayes Sr. is a co-sponsor. Both will accompany the group tonight.

The Christian Ambassadors are members of Tri-City Park Tabernacle Church.

At Sunday evening's service at 7 o'clock, Dr. George A. Rosenthal of Edgemont Bible Church will be the guest minister. Mrs. Davis said. Visitors are welcome at all services, she added.

Church school classes will start Sunday at 9 a.m.

Sharon Anderson is engaged

The Mormon Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah, will be the scene of the September wedding of Mrs. Sharon Boyd Anderson, a daughter of Edward Bob Boyd of Granite City and the late Mrs. Genevieve Boyd, and Dr. Joseph D. Lorenzo, a son of Mrs. Dorothy Davis, of East Hampton, Conn.

Mrs. Anderson is attending Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah, where she is majoring in special education and rehabilitation. She is also employed as the night supervisor and nurses aide at the Medallion Manor Nursing Home in Provo.

Her fiance received his doctorate at Brigham Young University and is presently Director of Special Education in Council Bluffs Community Schools, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

More effective mosquito program due in Nameoki

A new and more effective mosquito sprayer will go into operation in Nameoki Township in about two weeks.

Harold Davis, supervisor of the township, explained at Monday night's Nameoki Town Board of Trustees meeting that the new sprayer, far superior to the old "fogging" method of spraying for mosquitos, will kill 95 to 99 per cent of mosquitos in the coverage area when used after dark.

He said the new sprayer will be more expensive to operate, but may be used less often, while still reducing the mosquito population below the reduction noted using the fogger sprayer daily.

"We need to inform people that we can spray less often with better results, or they are going to feel we are not doing our job properly," Davis said.

"Residents are used to seeing the old fogging equipment coming by more often in the daytime. Now we will come by less often and they will not see the fog, but we will be killing more mosquitos," he added.

He also noted problems related to using manpower employees to spray for mosquitos in the evening have been overcome with the help of the county's manpower office and two of the township's manpower employees have qualified for state certification as abatement officers.

Five of the manpower employees took the state test after a seminar, of which two passed and have been certified, Davis told the Town Board.

He said he held the contract for the purchase of the spraying unit until he could discuss it with the board, due to problems encountered with scheduling manpower workers in the evening hours, but said he felt the purchase should be made immediately, since that problem had been resolved.

The board gave him authority to purchase the item and contracts were sent out Tuesday morning. The sprayer is expected to arrive in two weeks.

Davis also noted that a manpower "task force" is to begin working in the township

Tuesday, July 5, and will remain as long as needed cleaning "ditches, canals, culverts, holding ponds and other areas."

Work must be done on public property as recent manpower orders prohibit the workers from going on private property, even with the owner's permission, he said.

He later explained that exceptions are possible in instances where serious health problems exist and the property owner's are unable financially to correct the problems.

In other business, the board discussed several errors in street name signs erected under the Community Development uniform street identification program and the township's highway commissioner, Frank Mehelie, said he is to meet with Mary Kane, head of the county's Community Development office, July 7, to discuss errors which the county should correct.

Fireworks eye hazard

An estimated 50 Illinois youngsters will suffer eye injuries from illegal fireworks this 4th of July if past statistics are an indication of present danger.

Edgar T. Britton, executive director of the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness, predicts:

"Possibly two or three of these youngsters will suffer permanent blindness," Britton added.

"Some may even be killed."

"It has happened in the past. In 1961, five Lake County children died in a gasoline explosion touched off by a sparkler — and it's likely to happen this year unless Illinois parents crack down on fireworks around the home."

Britton explains that the Illinois Society, a 61-year-old, non-profit organization dedicated to protection and preservation of vision, has been soliciting fireworks eye injury reports from ophthalmologists throughout the state for the past 25 years.

"Some injuries undoubtedly go unreported, and some are never treated," he says.

"But the reports we have received of the more serious cases average out to about 50 eye accidents a year from fireworks explosions."

"Illinois," Britton notes, "has had legislation banning the sale and use of fireworks since 1941."

"Unfortunately, many other states — 18 at last count — have not prohibited their use, and illegal fireworks continue to be bootlegged into the state by unscrupulous vendors."

Britton points out that in the Revolutionary War, 10,000 Americans were killed or wounded.

"Yet, in the years our country has been celebrating this great victory and its independence, more than 100,000 Americans have been killed, maimed, crippled or blinded."

"The Society," Britton says, "has no objection to ground or aerial displays under the strict control of professional experts which brighten the heavens at many community-wide celebrations. These are the safe and sane way to celebrate the Fourth."

"The big danger is in the bootlegged Roman candles, skyrocket, cherry bombs, cone fountains, wheels, torpedos and sparklers ignited by youngsters and even adults at home."

Parents, Britton emphasizes, can do much to protect their children and their neighbor's children by not buying or by not permitting the use of illegal and dangerous explosives.

"A few burned fingers may not seem serious," he says, "but eyes put out can never be replaced."

"What a price to pay for a few loud bangs."

I-270 bridge bids are below estimate

Governor James R. Thompson announced Tuesday that bids received for substructure work on the new Jefferson Barracks Bridge over the Mississippi River have come in nearly $1.2 million under the engineer's estimate.

substructure. Additional contracts for work on the bridge and highway (Interstate 270) will be awarded throughout the July 1977-June 1978 fiscal year.

It is the department's plan to complete the westbound structure first so it can be utilized for two-way traffic, and then remove the existing bridge and complete the eastbound structure.

The new structure will span the river near St. Louis. The apparent low bid was submitted jointly by the firms of Frun-Colson Corporation and Granite Construction Company of California. Their bid was $18,000,000.

"This million dollar savings is good news for the taxpayers of Illinois," Gov. Thompson said. "Pending award of the contracts, work on this needed bridge could start late this summer."

The work will include all of the westbound substructure and 70 per cent of the eastbound substructure. River traffic will not be interrupted during construction. When completed, the bridge is estimated to cost $32 million. Interstate 270, when completed, will link Interstate 270 on the Missouri side of the river and the Quad-City area to Interstate 55-70 west of Collinsville, providing a full circumferential route for this metropolitan area.

The entire new Jefferson Barracks bridge is expected to be completed in 1982.

Hundreds mark holiday with softball tourney

The Fourth of July weekend activities of the Granite City Park District include a 17-team men's softball double-elimination tournament to be played at both Worthen Park and West Granite City Park.

Teams entered are Imperial Mobile Homes, Razor's Edge Barber Shop, St. John's Lutheran, Pete and Mary's, Shang Liquor, Joyce and Mickey's, Crystal-Clear Ice, McDonald's, Midtown (6A), K-Mart, Long Branch, Community Heights, VFW Jels, Mexican Club, Century 21, Raiders and Midtown (6A).

Opening round games tomorrow at Worthen Park include Imperial vs. Razor's Edge at 7 p.m., St. John vs. Pete and Mary's at 8 p.m., Shang's vs. Mickey's at 9 p.m. and Crystal vs. McDonald's at 10 p.m.

Pairings tomorrow at West Granite Park include Midtown 6A vs. K-Mart 8 p.m., Long Branch vs. Community 7 p.m. with the winner playing VFW at 10 p.m., Mexican vs. Century at 9 p.m.

The Raiders and Midtown 8A meet each other at 11 a.m. Saturday to round out opening round action.

Also on Saturday, winner bracket games are set at Worthen Park at 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 8 and 9 p.m., with the 9 p.m.

victor advancing into a tourney championship game at 8 p.m. Monday against a team which has suffered only loss in competition.

Teams which suffered losses in winner bracket competition will have opportunities to work their way back into contention for the tourney title in contests Saturday and Sunday at both parks.

West Granite Park has games slated Saturday at 11 a.m., and 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 9, 10 p.m.

At Worthen Park, loser bracket contests are to be played Sunday at 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, and 7 p.m. with the latter game victor advancing into the championship game.

Holiday tourneys to open tomorrow

Participating women's softball teams of the Granite City Park District's summer program, will compete in two holiday tournaments this weekend to be played on Wilson Park's diamond eight, both starting tomorrow.

A four-team Class SA tourney starts at 7 p.m. tomorrow with the Elks Lodge playing Sammy's, followed at 8 p.m. with Bill's Auto Body taking on the Collinsville Comanches.

Losers' bracket of the double-elimination competition, for teams which suffer first-round losses, are set for 7 and 10 p.m. Saturday, and at 1 p.m. Sunday.

On Saturday, Advertisers plays the Peters-Lions game winner at 1 p.m., and Apple Valley vs. the Sedlack-Ravanello game victor at 2 p.m.

Winners of both Saturday contests then meet at 3 p.m. with the victor advancing into a tourney championship contest at 6 p.m. Sunday against the team emerging victorious from the losers' bracket of the double-elimination competition.

Losers' bracket contests, for teams which suffer first-round losses, are set for 7 and 10 p.m. Saturday, and at 1 p.m. Sunday.

14-team Madison weekend tourney

A 14-team holiday softball tournament will begin on the Third Street diamond in Madison at 6 p.m. Friday according to Dan Dymus, recreation director for Madison.

On Saturday, Sunday and Monday games will be played every hour on the hour beginning at 11 a.m. with the last game beginning at 7 p.m.

According to Dymus the championship game will be played at about 6 p.m. on Monday.

The Madison Fire Department will be selling hot dogs, barbecue and beer; corn on the cob will be sold by V. and V. softball team, and Explorer Post 104 will be selling soda and popcorn to add to the festive tourney.

Postponed championship race set Saturday night

Twenty-four late model stock car drivers will line their race cars two abreast in 12 rows on the front straightaway of Tri-City Speedway this Saturday night in anticipation of the start of the formerly rained out 50-lap mid-season championship race on the half mile oval.

Years of combined experience occupy the first six rows, headed by 24-year racing veteran Wil Spaulding of Ponton Beach who will start at the front of the field alongside of two-time Tri-City track titlist Russ Wallace of Arnold, Mo.

Spaulding was featured in the Press-Record's June 22 issue prior to the originally scheduled 50-lap event last Saturday. But the entire evening's racing program had to be delayed one week due to heavy rains which had deluged the area.

Filling the remaining positions will be: row two — Kenny Shrum and C. C. Corbin; row three — Bill Myers and Jerry Sifford; row four — Len Gitemeier and Willie Johnston; row five — Norm Cox and Larry Bromer.

Row six — Kenny Schrader and Bill Holiday; row seven — Gary Potter and Joe Ross; row eight — Mike Hammerle and Bob Miner; row nine — Bobby Buzell and Bill Laycock; row 10 — Charlie Monday and Bert Griffin; row 11 — Ken Downs and Mike Wallace; and row 12 — Mike Barbest and Ralph Knox.

The eight o'clock racing program will also include the sportsman class stock cars, headed by current point leader Dean Aerne of Granite City.

Bethalto uses unearned run; tops Glen Carbon squad 1-0

Granite City Mike Hubbard walked on top the mound last night at Bethalto with one thought in mind — beat Bethalto.

Hubbard's attempt to poll Glen Carbon Post 435 out of a losing rut in District 22 American Legion Baseball League competition succeeded for five full innings before the hosts garnered an unearned run in the sixth frame for a 1-0 win over Art Jovi's Legionnaires.

Now with a 1-13 league record (19 overall), Glen Carbon lost twice at Alton on Tuesday by scores of 7-0 and 7-4.

The second loss to Alton was a continuation of an earlier season contest that was called due to darkness after seven innings with the score deadlocked 4-4.

Alton got the winning and extra runs in the 10th frame.

Post 435 is set to take on Tri-City Post 113 at 6 p.m. tomorrow on the GCHS South diamond (Fehling Road curve), and then compete Sunday in a 2 p.m. non-league contest at West Frankfort.

The squad will stay overnight in West Frankfort, and then participate July 4 in a four-team tournament at Harrisburg which will include Edwardsville, Marion, Glen Carbon and the hosts.

Winning becoming a habit for Post 113 ballplayers

District 22 American Legion Baseball League leader Tri-City Post 113 travels to O'Fallon today at six o'clock before taking a three-day home stand on the GCHS South diamond (Fehling Road curve).

After beating Highland Tuesday, 9-2 and P.D. Conrad Champion's Legionnaires dropped a non-league 1-0 decision at home yesterday to Gillespie.

Tomorrow starts the first of three home games for Post 113 — hosting Glen Carbon Post 435 at 6 p.m., and then against Belleville on Tuesday at 6 p.m. and Bethalto on Wednesday at 6 p.m. — all league contests.

Holy Trinity to observe anniversary, dedication

The first and oldest Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Church in America, "Holy Trinity" Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Church at Madison, will observe the 70th anniversary of its founding during the weekend with a series of special events highlighted by the dedication Sunday, July 3, of the new addition to the church, 1300 Grand Ave., Madison.

The anniversary celebration of the church, which serves the entire Greater St. Louis Metropolitan area, will coincide with the annual Diocesan Convention of the American-Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Diocese of Akron, Ohio, U.S.A., Canada and Australia. "Holy Trinity" Church will host the four-day meeting at the Breckenridge Pavilion Hotel. The Right Reverend Bishop Simeon, head of the American-Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Diocese of Akron, Ohio, U.S.A., Canada and Australia, will preside at the church dedication services assisted by "Holy Trinity" pastor, the Reverend Father Peter Stamboldjev and eight priests from other parishes. Registration for convention delegates and guests will be held Friday, July 1, at the Breckenridge Pavilion Hotel from 1 p.m. until midnight. Members of the Youth Organization of "Holy Trinity" parish will sponsor a hospitality dance open to all delegates and guests in the Hawthorne Room. Ethnic food and entertainment by The Golden Greeks will be featured and tickets are available from John Mangoff, 877-7128.

The convention will be in session from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Saturday at the hotel, adjourning for Vespers at 4:30 at "Holy Trinity" Church. Professor Very Reverend Father Mateja Matejic will be the principal speaker at the dinner Saturday evening at 7 o'clock in the Hawthorne Room. The dinner will be preceded by

COUNTRY-WESTERN entertainers, Jan Files and Ron Mahan, foreground, and The Country Lads. They will entertain patrons at the Fourth of July Festival at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the Wilson Park ice rink pavilion. The festival starts Thursday at 6 p.m. and continues through the traditional fireworks display at 9 p.m. Monday, July 4. Mahan has appeared with such widely-known country-western stars as Mel Tillis, Merle Haggard, Ronnie Milsap and Barbra Mandrell, among others. No admission will be charged to view the show.

a reception at 6 o'clock in the Garden Terrace.

The music of the Joe Tricoff Band from Detroit will be featured following the dinner and again on Sunday at the banquet which follows the dedication.

Dedication ceremonies for the new addition to the church will be held Sunday morning at 9:30 followed by the Archbishop's Archpastoral Divine Liturgy at 10:30. There will be a banquet and a program of ethnic dancing at 1 o'clock Sunday at ternoon at "Holy Trinity" Hall, 1245 Madison Ave.

The convention, which concludes Monday, July 4, and the ceremonies at "Holy Trinity" Church are open to the community.

For convention information and ticket reservations, Quad-Cityans may contact Co-Chairmen Dorothy Beck, 469 1803, or Leland Ambuehl, 1-618-481-7415. Constantine Nichaeloff is president of "Holy Trinity" Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Church and Mary Tarpoff is chairwoman of convention and dedication activities for the church. Other board members include: Cecelia Mountz, vice-president; Elaine Shipcoff, recording secretary; Ruth Geroff, corresponding secretary and Nick Todoroff Jr., treasurer.

Trustees are Leland Ambuehl, Cecelia Mountz,

Christine Saigh, Alex Tarpoff, Olga Tarpoff and Nick Todoroff Jr. Organized in 1907 as a native spiritual center for Bulgarian and Macedonian immigrants who settled in the Madison-Granite City-St. Louis area, "Holy Trinity" has been rebuilt and relocated four times. The cornerstone for the present church was dedicated in 1928. The new addition is of brick construction with stained glass windows and ornate etched bronze doors. The original icon of "Holy Trinity" Parish is affixed in ceramics on the front of the new belfry.

The painted icons in the church vestibule are by the well-known artist Dhimtri Zonia and the icons in the stained glass windows are the work of designers from Davis Art Glass. The bronze belfry doors were designed by Architectural Bronze Studio.

68 million regional bus riders likely in 1977-78

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD Thurs., June 30, 1977 Page 16

Improved services are emphasized in the Bi-State Development Agency's operating budget for the St. Louis metropolitan area transit system.

Totaling $52.9 million for fiscal year 1978 (July 1, 1977 through June 30, 1978), the budget represents a 14 per cent increase over the fiscal year just completed. Half of the increase is directly related to improved bus service.

Robert J. Baer, Bi-State Agency executive director, said service improvements — including two new express lines and increased frequency, extensions and rerouting of lines — are expected to boost Bi-State bus ridership to more than 68 million passengers per year and result in farebox revenue of approximately $15 million, an increase of 6.7 per cent over the current fiscal year.

"In addition, we expect to log 28 million miles, a growth of 6.6 per cent," Baer said.

Public funds of $13.1 million through transportation sales tax appropriations from the City of St. Louis and St. Louis County, and $4.7 million from the State of Illinois under the Downstate Public Transportation Act, plus $11.9 million in federal operating assistance, account for a large part of the transit system's operating budget.

An additional $1.4 million from St. Louis County for special county projects, and other sources of income including interest on investments, account for the balance.

Also approved by the board headed by Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler is a capital budget of $70 million, $51.5 million of which will be sought from federal sources. It includes purchase of new air-conditioned buses with two-way radios, passenger shelters, a registering fare collection system, major garage improvements, a new administrative office building, construction of the Locust Street Bus-Pedestrian Mall, a coordinated passenger information graphics program and a computerized telephone information system.

In addition, the basic 25 cent fare, one of the lowest in the nation, will continue.

The Bi-State board also approved operating expenses totaling $407,000 for the Gateway Arch Transportation System, which carried nearly one million passengers last year.

An innovative passenger reservation system, said to have been well received, will continue.

Bi-State Parks Airport in Cahokia, Ill., one of the most active general aviation facilities in the St. Louis metropolitan area, is expected to generate sufficient revenue to more than cover its anticipated expenses of $259,000.

A budget of $317,000, representing a decrease of $17,000 from fiscal 1977, has been established to cover expenses for administrative activities of the executive director's office as well as programs associated with Bi-State's role as coordinator of the Port of Metropolitan St. Louis. Included are $30,000 in port development grant funds.

Driver license facilities plan holiday closing

Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon has announced a revised operating schedule for his office for the 4th of July weekend. Dixon said that all driver license services facilities outside of Cook County will be closed at 4:30 p.m. Friday, July 1, and will reopen at 8 a.m. Tuesday, July 5. All Cook County facilities and the Secretary's office in Springfield and Chicago will be closed Independence Day, Monday, July 4.

Pamela Tester seeks title of 'Teen Queen'

Fourteen young women, including Miss Pamela Jean Tester of Granite City, will be in Peoria during the weekend to seek the title of Miss Illinois Teen Queen and advancement into national competition Sept. 8, 9 and 10 in Memphis, Tenn. Vying for the crown at Peoria's Hilton Hotel tomorrow and Saturday are girls, aged 15-17, who will be judged on scholastic achievement, civic contributions, poise, personality, appearance and essay presentation. Competing along with Miss Tester, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Tester, will be Kathleen Palermo, Veronica Birks and Katy Heyd, all of Chicago; Lori Kaplan of Skokie; Penny Rowell of Addison; Georgia Koromilas of Waukegan; Marilyn Gilley of Marion; Anita Vahr of Farmington; Ann Hagemann of East Peoria; Laura Handtmann of Woodlawn; Deborah Wade of Waukegan; Tina Reynolds of Tower Hill and Helen White of Chicago Heights. Retiring queen, Camille Stompanato of Elk Grove, will crown the newly-chosen titlest.

Services held for Marion Luther, 50

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 1 p.m. at a Granite City funeral home for Marion Luther, 55, of St. Louis, father of Mrs. Kay Hildebrand of Granite City. He died Monday at his home, 2830 Missouri Ave., St. Louis. Other survivors include his wife, four other daughters, four sons and 14 grandchildren. Burial was in National Cemetery, Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

Women's Aglow meeting set

The Granite City Chapter of Women's Aglow Fellowship will meet for breakfast at 10 a.m. on Thursday, July 7, at the Edwardsville Holiday Inn. It was announced by Liz Banks, secretary.

Guest speakers at the 10 a.m. meeting will be the Rev. Elizabeth Parrior and her daughter, Grace, who pastor the Faith Tabernacle in St. Louis.

Special music will be provided by the Rev. and Mrs. Steve Callery, according to the secretary.

Reservations must be made no later than July 5, with Noreen Thomas, 931-1350, Mrs. Graham, 656-2103 or Scotty Radford, 931-2443, it was noted.

Phi Beta Kappa initiates

The Gamma Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign has initiated 162 new members, and of that number 140 now are graduates and 22 were selected for the honor as juniors.

Among the new members are Ralph Reeder, 3148 Myrtle Ave., and Gail Waldo, 530 Fleming Place, Mitchell.

Phi Beta Kappa, founded in 1776, is the oldest American honor society recognizing students of liberal arts and sciences who earn exceptionally high grades. Requirements for juniors are more demanding than for seniors and recent graduates.

At UIUC, only students who are enrolled in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences are eligible for membership. They must satisfy a language requirement and must take six hours of a sequence of courses in each of four areas of study: humanities, social studies, physical science and biological science.

Three juniors were named Phi Beta Kappa Scholars and were awarded $100 for their senior years.

More the Merrier enroll members

The More the Merrier Senior Citizen group welcomed two new members, Mr. and Mrs. Jack (Ruth) Allen, at a pot luck dinner last week held at the Senior Citizen Center.

President John Winkelmeyer opened the meeting with a prayer and pledge to the flag.

After dinner the 37 members and guests played games and prizes were awarded to Helen Gantcheff, Tom Crawley and William Dumont.

A business session is set for 2 p.m. July 14, at the center and those observing birthdays in July are to provide cakes, for refreshments.

Retired Persons plan bus trips

Bus trips to Hullings Ranch and Mill Stream Gardens was the topic of discussion of the American Association of Retired Persons meeting, held last week.

President Mrs. Elma Hoover announced reservations for one bus have been completed and if enough interested people wish to register another bus will be provided. Arthur and Vi Lindner are accepting reservations. A picnic for July 12 at Shelter Two, Wilson Park was also discussed.

The president reported the next regular meeting is set for Sept. 13 and a board meeting is planned for July 27.

MR. AND MRS. CRUSE NAMES SON THOMAS
Thomas Matthew is the name selected by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cruse, 3036 Buxton Ave., for their first son, born May 26 at St. Elizabeth Hospital. He weighed seven pounds, 13 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Cruse have two daughters, Stephanie, seven years old and six-year-old Tracy Cruse.

Maternal grandparents are Mrs. Peggy Copeland of Granite City, and Art Copeland of Alton. Paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cruse, reside in Granite City.

Unit 113, offered personal glimpses into their experiences during the week-long program at MacMurray College in Jacksonville, at a unit meeting last week.

Mrs. Lumeta Durbin, Girls State chairman, introduced the two young women, both of whom are junior year high school students.

Miss Marshall, a daughter of Mrs. Rose Marshall, Rural Route Two, and a student at North High School, reported being elected county clerk at Girls State.

She also was named a delegate to the two-party convention, held as part of a citizenship training program, and she described a meeting with Illinois Gov. James R. Thompson.

Miss Matosian, daughter of Judge A. Andreas and Mrs. Matosian, 2836 State St., was chosen secretary of state and selected to attend the National Girls State program in Washington, D. C., which starts July 9.

The first girl to be chosen for the national honor from this region, Miss Matosian will attend a function in the White House rose garden and meet President Jimmy Carter while in Washington.

She also will be greeted by Illinois Senators Charles Percy and Adlai Stevenson III and Congressmen Melvin Price and Paul Simon. Both girls expressed their appreciation to the Unit 113 membership and reported being "very enlightened by their experiences at the Illinois Girls State."

Meeting in the Tri-City American Legion Hall, 1825 State St., the auxiliary members also heard details from Mrs. Loretta Goeller concerning a party for veterans at Alton State Medical Center.

Mrs. Doris Hitchcock, vice-president, was in charge of the business session. She announced the president, Mrs. Ruby Cooper, is a patient at St. Anthony's Hospital in Alton.

Mrs. Evelyn McCollegan, chaplain, offered the opening prayer and the pledge to the flag was repeated in unison.

Plans were reviewed for the unit's annual installation dinner, scheduled July 16 in conjunction with Legion Post 113 officers.

A dessert course was served by Mrs. Durbin, hostess for the meeting. The tables were decorated with arrangements of red, white and blue carnations and miniature flags.

In the social hour, games were played for entertainment and prizes were awarded to Mesdames Hitchcock, Goeller, McCollegan, Alma Klaus, Rae Callender, Mildred Rees, Nellie Hillmer and Lynn Cuvar.

Mrs. Doris Hitchcock, vice-president, was in charge of the business session. She announced the president, Mrs. Ruby Cooper, is a patient at St. Anthony's Hospital in Alton.

Mrs. Evelyn McCollegan, chaplain, offered the opening prayer and the pledge to the flag was repeated in unison.

Plans were reviewed for the unit's annual installation dinner, scheduled July 16 in conjunction with Legion Post 113 officers.

A dessert course was served by Mrs. Durbin, hostess for the meeting. The tables were decorated with arrangements of red, white and blue carnations and miniature flags.

In the social hour, games were played for entertainment and prizes were awarded to Mesdames Hitchcock, Goeller, McCollegan, Alma Klaus, Rae Callender, Mildred Rees, Nellie Hillmer and Lynn Cuvar.

Unit 113, offered personal glimpses into their experiences during the week-long program at MacMurray College in Jacksonville, at a unit meeting last week.

Mrs. Lumeta Durbin, Girls State chairman, introduced the two young women, both of whom are junior year high school students.

Miss Marshall, a daughter of Mrs. Rose Marshall, Rural Route Two, and a student at North High School, reported being elected county clerk at Girls State.

She also was named a delegate to the two-party convention, held as part of a citizenship training program, and she described a meeting with Illinois Gov. James R. Thompson.

Miss Matosian, daughter of Judge A. Andreas and Mrs. Matosian, 2836 State St., was chosen secretary of state and selected to attend the National Girls State program in Washington, D. C., which starts July 9.

The first girl to be chosen for the national honor from this region, Miss Matosian will attend a function in the White House rose garden and meet President Jimmy Carter while in Washington.

Achievement Night of 58'ers 4-H Club

The 58'ers 4-H Club held their local achievement program last week at St. John's United Church of Christ with 33 members and guests in attendance. Pledges were led by Laura Jenness and Kelly Ault and happy birthday was sung to Gina Graham, Laura Jenness, Janine Modica and Kathy Zinn, a guest. Members introduced their guests at roll call. Guests included Marta Ault, Kathy Zinn, Lori Forrest, Mrs. Arla Ault, Mrs. Anita Graham, Mrs. Joyce Jenness, Mrs. Berta Milianis, Mrs. Chris Range, Mrs. Joan Ruth, Miss Lea Ruth, Susan Scannell, Mrs. Jeanette Scannell, Mrs. Cathy Strum,

Mrs. Rita Dimitroff, Catherine Dimitroff and Mrs. Alma Buente. Highlights of the evening included demonstrations on "Brownies" by Nancy Dimitroff and "Devised Eggs" by Lisa Griffey followed by a dress review of garments made by members. Gina Graham modeled a polyester and cotton lace trimmed top and scarf made in her first year clothing project. Modeling second year sewing garments were Cindy Buente, a floral print sleeveless top and red slacks, and Laura Jenness, a white pique short jumpsuit and billed cap. Third year clothing projects were modeled by Michelle Jenness in her yellow checked sun dress and Lisa Griffey in a beige blouse and chevron striped skirt with matching reversible purse. A blue knit pants suit was displayed by Karen Spencer.

A report on the recent 4-H speech contest was given by Mrs. Joanna Spencer, leader. Sue Basarich, a member of the 58'ers, will represent Madison County at the Illinois State Fair in August with her speech entitled "Together We Will." Mrs. Spencer also reported a gift from the Trio Homemakers Unit and a mention of the community beautification project by the club was in the Chamber of Commerce bulletin. The conclusion of the evening was spent viewing members project work and refreshments of cookies and punch were served. Members who assisted the leader were Laura Jenness, chairman, Michelle Jenness, Mary Ruth, Cindy Buente and Janet Scannell.

Members and their projects shown were: Kelly Ault, pastry in your meals and textile painting; Sue Basarich, outdoor meals, textile painting, and reading; Cindy Buente, learn to sew II; Shannon Bushue, milk and eggs, textile painting; Gloria Milianis, crocheting I and ceramics I; Janine Modica, painting; Loretta Paschedag, you learn to bake and reading; Ellen Range, let's start cooking and quilting I; Mary Ruth, needlepoint; Janet Scannell, teen time foods, photography, reading, needlepoint and tennis; Juli Scannell, room improvements; Lisa Scannell, outdoor meals, reading, needlepoint and crocheting II; Karen Spencer, you and your clothes, reading, quilting II; Penny Strum, let's start cooking, ceramics I, forestry and reading and Wendy Sparks, crocheting I.

Members were reminded of the County Achievement days on July 7 and July 8 to be held in Edwardsville and the County Fair July 25-27 held in Highland.

Patchworkers hosts Achievement Night

The Patchworkers 4-H Club opened its Local Achievement Night, last week, with a surprise baby shower for Mrs. Claude Kessler, assistant leader of the club, arranged by Mrs. Frances Hartman.

The achievement part of the evening was called to order by Mrs. Martha McIlvoy, leader. Pledges were read by Patti Grebel and Janet Jachino. Mrs. McIlvoy welcomed the members and guests and invited everyone to examine the finished projects on the display table. Mrs. Kessler was recognized for her help in the past year as an assistant leader. She spoke a few words and thanked everyone for the many gifts she received.

Gifts were given to Mrs. Frances Hartman for helping her daughter Amy during the past year as chairman of the Tours and Speakers committee and to Mrs. Marie Loftus for aiding her daughter, Lynda, carry out her duties as chairman of the window display.

The officers were then introduced and each was given a gift for the fine job they had done in the past year. Those listed are Patti Grebel, telephone committee; Karen Toussaint, recreation chairman; Debbie Burnett, secretary; Sue Burnett, vice-president; and Wendy McIlvoy, president. Five girls recognized for having perfect attendance for the year were Joan Krystopa, Mickey Loftus, Christy Kessler, Amy Hartman and Sue Burnett.

Mrs. McIlvoy reviewed the many activities the club had participated in during the past year, and recognized particularly the girls going to state, Amy Hartman for "Indoor Flowers" and Mary Loftus for "Art Media." The girls who received "A" in their various projects such as Michelle Loftus for the Project and Activities contest for her demonstration

Programs offered to older Americans

The programs and services of the Southwestern Illinois Area Agency on Aging, which is offered to older Americans, was reviewed at an informational meeting held at North High School, by Mrs. Elina Hoover, a member of the SWIAA board, last week.

In the text of her speech, Mrs. Hoover said the agency is one of 13 in the state of Illinois and came into operation in 1973, when congress added amendments to the Older American Act, requiring that the states be subdivided into areas to better serve the older residents.

The agency covers seven counties including Bond, Clinton, Madison, Monroe, Randolph, St. Clair and Washington, with 31 members on the governing board, from each of the seven counties, based on population.

Grants are divided to cover both rural and urban needs, and unfortunately there are usually three times as many applications as there are funds allotted to the agency, Mrs. Hoover added.

The present grants cover a wide range of services to older Americans, such as, if a small city has no bus service, no doctor or drug store, grants are given to purchase and maintain a bus to transport the seniors to a nearby larger town for health services. Grants cannot do all the work and at times local support is needed. This is called "match" and is sometimes completed by volunteer work by the seniors themselves. Mrs. Hoover related.

Locally the nutrition program, which serves meals at the Granite City Senior Citizen Center, is funded from the State D of Aging. The only direct grant applied for and received in this area is through the YMCA for recreation and health.

There are weekly social afternoons on Wednesday, field trips and exercise and use of the "Y" pool, provided here. Mrs. Hoover announced a physical fitness class will be opened in the fall to be geared to the level of fitness each senior can attain.

The guest speaker also noted a paralegal comes to the "Y" twice a month to assist older people with any legal problem or referring them to the proper authority for assistance.

Any resident in the Quad-City area who is unaware of the programs offered are advised to contact Mrs. Hoover for more information.

Mrs. Hoover explained questionnaires are being circulated for possible courses for the Metro-East Institute of Lifetime Learning, which is planned for seniors who are interested in taking non-credit classes in various subjects.

The programs is being actively sponsored by the American Association of Retired Persons and is open to any resident.

Questionnaires are available

Ernest Halberts honored

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Halbert, 2520 Adams St., hosted an open house reception and dinner Sunday afternoon at the VFW Hall, in honor of the couple's 25th wedding anniversary.

Mr. Halbert was born in Steelville, Mo., and has resided in Granite City for 54 years. He retired from the former Union Starch and Refining Co., after 46 years of service.

His wife, the former Rose Hawkins, is a native of Holo, Mo., and moved to the area at the age of three. She has been employed at Nesco Co., Doris Dodson Dress factory, Newberry Store all of Granite City, and retired from the Spealburg Manufacturing Co. in St. Louis.

Mrs. Halbert is a member of Granite Chapter 650, Order of the Eastern Star, Gabriel Shrine 70, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, Women of the Moose and American Legion Auxiliary 115.

Her husband belongs to Masonic Lodge 835, Tri-City Shrine Club, Almad Shrine, Scottish Rite Bodies and Moose Lodge.

They have three married children, Don Halbert of Indianapolis, Ind., Mrs. Stanley (Doris) Edwards of Granite City, and John Hoy of Warrenton, Mo. The honorees also have six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Blue and silver bows and streamers decorated the hall and a fresh floral bouquet adorned the buffet table with a three tiered decorated cake.

The main table was accented with a compote holding 25 white silk roses, blue baby's breath flanked by silver candelabra holding burning blue tapers.

Entertainment for the afternoon was provided by Ted Sabo at the organ.

Mesha Barton marks fourth birthday

Mesha Marie Barton celebrated her fourth birthday at a party given Sunday by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Barton, 2812 Saratoga Ave.

Various games were played and prizes awarded to the winners, followed by the honoree opening her gifts.

A cake decorated with a clown motif centered the table and favors were clown ice cream cones.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tucker Jr. and Mrs. Lillian Barton, grandparents and Floyd Tucker Sr., great-grandfather of the guest of honor. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Danny Worthen, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Steen, Kelly and Holly, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barton and Miss Stacy Tucker.

Reckless homicide verdict in fatal crash at Mitchell

A coroner's jury in Granite City Wednesday ruled reckless homicide as the cause of death of James N. Mitchell, 16, of Rural Route Two, Box 781, Mitchell, during an auto accident June 3 on Chain of Rocks Road in Mitchell.

The coroner's jury also alleged that the "reckless homicide" was committed by Victor G. Schwartz, 100 Brentwood, Alton, driver of one of the cars in the accident.

Sheriff's deputies' reports presented at the inquest alleged that Schwartz was eastbound and turning left into the parking lot of the Apple Valley Motel, 709 E. Chain of Rocks Road, as the auto of Steven Davis, 517 English Place, Mitchell, was passing on the left and the vehicles collided.

Davis' auto, with Mr. McKinney as a passenger, went through a driveway and into a ditch, overturning one or more times before coming to rest on its wheels.

Mr. McKinney suffered a severe skull fracture and was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Davis suffered bruises and minor cuts and was released after hospital treatment. Sheriff's Deputy Bruce Trots, who was the first deputy at the accident scene, alleged Schwartz appeared to be staggering beside his car and said he could smell beer on his breath "two to three feet from him."

Trots testified he took Schwartz to the Edwardsville Police Department where Schwartz tried unsuccessfully to contact his attorney and then refused to take a breath test. Schwartz was charged with driving while under the influence of liquor and with failure to signal a left turn. Both drivers appeared at the inquest, but pleaded the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution as grounds for refusing to testify.

Mrs. Joanne Vourard of Alton, a passenger in Schwartz' auto, testified she and Schwartz were seeking a driveway to turn around and return to Interstate 270 and she recalled Schwartz turning on his turn signal for one driveway, but then passing it up and moments later turning left toward the motel driveway.

Family awaits word from minister who has been missing since June 17

By VALERIE EVENEDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

No word has yet been received by the family of the Rev. Harold T. Gillison of Granite City, whose disappearance June 17 under highly forbidding circumstances still remains a mystery.

Mrs. Bobbie Gillison, his wife, and the couple's two daughters, Judy, 12, and Brenda, 15, continue to wait in their neat brick home at 3000 Marshall Ave. for some word—any word—from their husband and father.

Another daughter, Mrs. Terry Diaz, and a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. (Mary) Gillison, all of Granite City, are at a loss to understand the motives behind the minister's vanishment.

The Rev. Gillison, 49, pastor of the Faith Tabernacle in Wood River and former pastor of the Living Waters Temple on Victory Drive (now Miracle Tabernacle), disappeared in Forrest City, Ark.

The family had gathered there because Mrs. Gillison's father was seriously ill. [Forrest City, a community of about 12,500 population in Eastern Arkansas, is about 40 miles from Memphis, Tenn. It is Mrs. Gillison's hometown.]

Today, marks 13 days since the minister vanished, and the last word from him was a telephone call at 2 a.m. June 17. "He said he was going out for a hamburger about 12:30 a.m. and that he would not be gone long," his wife said. "I left the door unlocked for him."

About 2 a.m., the daughter-in-law answered the telephone. It was the Rev. Gillison. "He sounded hysterical and shouted 'they've got me,'" Mrs. Mary Gillison said.

He said he could not tell her when she asked who and why. "He said to tell Harold (his son) to pick up the car at the hamburger place and said there was a note on the car seat," she said.

His wife took the phone and he said, "They've got me" three times. "Then the phone went dead," she said.

Mrs. Gillison, her daughter, Mrs. Diaz, and the son and daughter-in-law found the car at the restaurant. The note on the seat, written on a page from a pad of paper kept in the car, said someone had a contract to kill him and would kill his grandchildren and daughter, Judy, if efforts were made to bring him back.

"They caught me today and beat my guts plumb sore," the note continued. "Remember I love all of you with all my heart. Please for my kids sake let me run. I'd die, but that's not what they want."

The Rev. Gillison's suitcases and a pair of eyeglasses were in the car. "Everything was there except the clothes he was wearing, his wallet and one pair of eyeglasses," Mrs. Gillison said. The Forrest City police were called to investigate and they broadcast the missing man's description to other departments. But no leads had been found when the family returned to Granite City June 19.

FBI agents discussed the case with Mrs. Gillison June 20, but said they lack jurisdiction until there is a demand for ransom or something else.

Mrs. Gillison said local authorities say they can do nothing except provide any assistance Forrest City police may request. So far, no request has been made to the local department, she said.

REV. HAROLD GILLISON
Missing in Arkansas

Mrs. Gillison and her children say they don't know of any reason why anyone would want to kill or hurt the Rev. Gillison, or why he is missing.

"We are still very much in love, and my husband has been a minister for 28 years and has a spotless record," the wife said. "All he ever did was go to work or to church and come home to be with his family," she added.

"My Dad is an honest, hard-working quiet man," his son, Harold, said. "Everyone who knows him, including his boss at work is shocked."

The Rev. Gillison has been employed for the past four years at Watling Ladder Co. in Valley Park, Mo. Previously, he worked at the St. Louis Car Division of General Steel Industries.

The family has lived in Granite City for 14 years. The Rev. Gillison is a native of East St. Louis.

Mrs. Gillison has sought no publicity about her husband's disappearance, preferring to leave the investigation in the hands of the appropriate law enforcement officials.

The original information concerning the vanishment came into public focus from another source.

She is under a severe strain in several ways and is under a doctor's care for a heart condition.

A financial strain is developing as she attempts to support herself and her daughters on a part-time salary.

The constant worry about what may be happening to her husband is underscored by the tension and fear she feels should someone try to harm Judy and the grandchildren as the note said.

Mrs. Gillison told the Press-Record yesterday that adding to her distress was an incident occurring this week in which she was subjected to "harassment while at work."

She is employed at a local department store.

While there, a television newscaster and a camera crew from a St. Louis television station arrived at the store.

In spite of pleas by Mrs. Gillison to leave her alone and her refusal to grant an on-camera interview, backed by the store manager who asked them to leave, the crew turned up at the family home while she still was at work, interviewed her young daughter and took pictures "inside and outside the house."

"I am very upset by this," Mrs. Gillison told the Press-Record. "They have no right to do this to us."

She is taking precautions and asked the reporter to show her press credentials.

"I honestly believe he is alive and would come to me if he could. He could have amnesia from the beating," Mrs. Gillison said.

"He may not dare come home for fear of what could happen to the children. He may have gotten away from his captors and is running so they can't find him," she speculated.

The phone rings frequently at the Gillison home, but it's usually a friend of the family wanting to know if there is any news.

All are hoping and praying the next telephone call will come from the Rev. Gillison.

Services held for former resident

Funeral services were held Monday at a funeral home in Tamarac, Fla., for John J. Suramy, 73, of 7514 N.W. 40th Place, Coral Springs, Fla., formerly of Granite City.

He died Saturday, June 25, at the Florida Medical Center.

His remains were moved to Florida six years ago.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Mary (Doroghazi) Suramy, one daughter, Mrs. Mary Ann Riddle and two grandsons, David and Mark Riddle, all of Coral Springs.

Madison council overrides ruling by city zoning board

By WALTER STRANGE
Press-Record Staff Writer
The Madison City Council Tuesday night overruled the City Zoning Board and approved a special use permit requested by James W. White and Anthony Galati for operation of a business to manufacture marble products at 1701-1707 Edwardsville Road. William L. Gushieff, chairman of the zoning board reported the board denied the petition because eight neighbors of the immediate area opposed the business for reasons of health, safety and welfare and fear of lower property values in the area. Third Ward Alderman Ronald Graywack said, "For the last four weeks I have been doing some investigating on my own. I talked at length to the two men and the realtor and had them explain the operation fully. I also explained the operation to the people in the neighborhood. "The concerns expressed to me were an increase in traffic and dust from the grinding. I have been assured that the grinding will be done in a special room with equipment to catch the dust. "I went over to Trojan Marble on Greenwood Street and talked to the neighbors about that operation. The neighbors had no complaints and said in the past two and a half years no one could really tell it was there. "This is a very similar operation we are now talking about. We are trying to get business and industry in this town and we need to encourage it, not run it away. I move we override the zoning board and allow the business," Graywack said.

Fourth Ward Alderman Mike Sikora seconded the motion and the council passed it unanimously. Speaking on the issue, First Ward Alderman Don Reeves said, "I have been in Madison since 1937 and since I have lived here that corner has had a business on it. I think the whole area will be better off than to have an empty building on the corner which in time we would be forced to tear down if it remained empty."

Third Ward Alderman Tom Gordon said, "I want to assure the residents of the immediate area that the building and operation will meet all building standards and safety standards." John Kulaska, 1649 Seventh St., Madison, objecting to the new business tried to interrupt the council meeting and speak against the building but was not recognized by any alderman or Mayor Mike Sasyk. After the meeting adjourned, Kulaska still tried to get the council to listen to him. Two bids for asphalt were opened with MacIair Asphalt, Collinsville, proposing to furnish bituminous concrete surface course, class 1, or equivalent at $10.35 per ton at its plant. Another bid submitted was from Asphaltic Concrete Corp. of St. Louis at $9 per ton. The Asphaltic bid had a clause reading, "The price set forth in this contract is based on the cost of material on May 11, 1977. The owner shall pay the contractor any increase in the cost of liquid asphalt FOB Wood River, between said dates and the date of installation, plus overhead and profit."

Alderman Reeves moved that the two bids be referred to the purchasing committee, legal department and superintendent of streets for a recommendation at the next council meeting. The council received one bid for a new street sweeper from the Key Equipment and Supply Co. in the net amount of $24,000, allowing $4,750 in trade for the city's old sweeper. Alderman Reeves moved that the city accept the bid and purchase the sweeper. Only one bid was received. A letter of resignation from Madison Police Officer Cecil Bell was read. Bell's resignation is to take effect Tuesday, as he is entering the security field of private industry. Mayor Sasyk said, "It is hard to compete with the salaries paid by private industry. I hate to see Cecil leave. We have been losing too many good police officers lately." On a motion to accept the resignation, all aldermen voted yes except Second Ward Alderman Frank Dutko who voted "No." When asked why he voted "No" Dutko said, "I hate to see Cecil leave. We have been losing too many good police officers lately." In other action, the council approved Danny Jones and Robert Bosworth as regular firemen. Both young men have been in the fire department cadet program for five years. The mayor then called for an executive session of the council to discuss personnel and hiring of additional policemen. After the executive session Mayor Sasyk said the police commissioners and chief of police are reviewing the possibility of hiring additional police.

The spokesman said the group has engaged an attorney from Belleville and the matter probably will have to be settled in court. The spokesman said the church has dropped from an attendance of over 200 a Sunday services to about 20 after the past two years. Voting rights of some congregation members also have been withheld, it was alleged. Rev. Miller is out of the city this week and could not be reached for comment.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT B. HARRIS. They were united in marriage at St. John United Church of Christ. Formerly Miss Michelle LeRene Hunter, the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Hunter, 3256 Rodger Ave.

Harris-Hunter wedding at St. John United

St. John United Church of Christ was the scene of the wedding, on June 18, of Miss Michelle LeRene Hunter, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Hunter, 3256 Rodger Ave., and Robert Bradley Harris, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Harris, 2582 Ivy Lane. White satin bows marked the pews and the white carpeted aisle was illuminated by burning tapers in tiered standards. Arrangements of blue and white carnations and pom poms, intermingled with greenery decorated the sanctuary for the double ring ceremony performed at 6 p.m. by the Rev. Dr. Paul Surbey.

Angelo Hamilos sang, "We've Only Just Begun" and "Colour My World." Annette and Gail Sherry, cousins of the bride, were the candlelighters.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the former Miss Hunter chose a bridal gown fashioned in a princess style with a molded bodice of Venise lace featuring a sheer yoke of embroidered tulle lace, etched with pearls. The decorative trim also created a high stand-up collar. Her semi-full skirt and chapel train were encircled with a ruffled flounce edged with lace. The tulle lace motifs were also applied on her cardinal style sleeves.

She wore a lace camelot headpiece to secure a mantilla veil, edged with Venise lace and she held a cascade of white roses, miniature carnations and stephanotis with sprigs of baby's breath and blue statice.

Maid of honor Miss Linda Haddix selected a formal length organ gown of chiffonette, designed with a scoop neckline traced with a double ruffle, fitted bodice and set-in hand waistline.

The full skirt was bordered with a deep gathered flounce draped in the back to create a bustle style.

Bridesmaids Miss Anne Harris, a sister of the groom, Mrs. James Walter, the bride's cousin, Miss Alicia Harper, Miss Marianne Parker and Mrs. Denise Barr, were gowned in identically styled dresses in rainbow colors of blue, pink, turquoise, mint green and apricot.

Each of the attendants wore a picture hat in matching shades and they carried nosegays of mixed summer blossoms in pastel hues.

Tammy Spillers, a cousin of the groom, served as flower girl. She carried a white basket

Reserve promotion for Judge Gibbons

Capt. Thomas R. Gibbons has been selected for promotion to the rank of major, U.S. Army Reserve. He was commanding officer of the 936th Maintenance Company, Wood River, from 1970 through 1972, and then a staff maintenance and training officer of the 520th Maintenance Battalion, St. Louis.

He is now assigned as an instructor with the U.S. Army Reserve summer career interest program, an Army peacetime civilian support curriculum providing two-week intensive training in selected fields to young persons age 15 and above.

Capt. Gibbons is an associate circuit judge in the Illinois court system's Third Circuit and is assigned at Edwardsville, where he resides.

Miss Cynthia Taylor and Jerry Levi Harty are wed

MR. AND MRS. JERRY L. HARTY whose wedding was solemnized at Nameoki United Methodist Church. The bride is the former Miss Cynthia Elaine Taylor, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Taylor, 7 Fontainebleau.

Miss Cynthia Elaine Taylor, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Taylor, 7 Fontainebleau, and Jerry Levi Harty, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Harty, 2022 Missouri Ave., exchanged wedding vows on May 28, at Nameoki United Methodist Church.

The Rev. William F. Fester officiated at the 7 o'clock evening ceremony before an altar decorated with sprays of white, green, pink and blue mums, and yellow carnations with accents of purple asters and greenery.

Lighting candles on each side of the altar and along the white carpeted aisle were Mike Waddell and Tom Sawyer.

Organist Mrs. Dan Bernick accompanied LaVern Larson as he sang, "God Gave Me You," "One Hand, One Heart," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Members of the wedding party included Miss Teresa Butler, maid of honor and Miss Lynn Walck, bridesmaid. Charles G. Taylor and Richard Taylor, brothers of the bride, served as best man and groomsmen.

Seating the guests were Steve Gardner and Greg Harper.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown created in candlelight bridal satin and made by her honor attendant, Miss Butler.

Long bishop sleeves of chiffon, cuffed in matching satin, were set into the pleated Empire bodice featuring a square neckline, and the A-line skirt extended into a chapel train.

She wore a lace and ribbon camellia cap to secure a cathedral length veil trimmed in Alencon lace. Her bouquet was composed of yellow silk daisies intermingled with baby's breath, lace ribbon and greenery.

A floor length blue flowered chiffon over satin gown designed with a cape with self ruffle at the neckline, was worn by the maid of honor.

The bridesmaid chose a full length dress, similar to the maid of honor, in peach hue. Both carried bouquets of daisies.

A rehearsal dinner was held in the home of the bride's parents and the reception was hosted in the church Fellowship Hall, after the service.

Both young people graduated from Granite City High School. The bride also graduated from Bauder Fashion College, Atlanta, Ga., in 1976, and now works at Northwest Bank in St. Louis.

The groom is an employee of Pood Tanks, Division of Barry Wehmiller, St. Louis.

They are now residing at 2205 Bryan Ave., following a wedding trip to Pere Marquette Lodge, Gratot.

Miss Beckie Swygert of Charleston, S.C., attended the guest book and reception assistants were Miss Darlene Holcomb, Birmingham, Ala., Miss Margaret Hargrave, Hohenwald, Tenn., Mrs. Johnnie Carter, Caseyville, Tenn., and Mrs. Luan Brinner, Granite City.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Taylor wore an aqua formal length gown and the groom's mother selected a long blue chiffon dress. They wore daisy corsages.

Watts retires from GC police force

Today will be the last day of duty for Granite City Police Lieutenant Kenneth Watts, who is retiring after 27 years on the police force.

Watts, 50, joined the Granite City police Feb. 1, 1950, and served eight years in the patrol division before being promoted to detective.

While a detective, he received a commendation for his investigation and arrest of a suspect after an armed robbery at Reese Drugs in Bellemore Village Shopping Center.

In February 1964, Watts returned to patrol division duties as a sergeant and in October of 1966 he was promoted to lieutenant.

He has received six letters of commendation, was honored for four years of perfect attendance and has attended numerous schools and seminars in law enforcement.

His training has included advanced studies in sabotage control, riot and mob control, explosives, fingerprinting, narcotics law, mental health problems and jailing.

Promotions to fill Watts position and other openings created by that change are to be announced within the next few weeks.

The Granite City Council also is considering an ordinance to create an additional sergeant's rank in the department, without increasing the total number of officers.

Thorngate Guest Day

"The Roaring Twenties" was the theme of the annual guest day of Thorngate Garden Club, held at Nameoki United Methodist Church, and attended by 44 members and guests.

Highlight of the event was a style show featuring wearing apparel popular in the 1920's, with each garment having a particular story relating to its originality, narrated by Mrs. Lillian Delpe.

Mrs. Patricia Polley and Miss Becky Corzilius entertained with dances from the era.

Red and white checked tablecloths covered the individual tables, which were centered with a candle in a wine bottle and favors were red garters.

Mrs. Helen Polley, club president, welcomed the group and invited each to view a special exhibit on the "1920's memento table."

Garden Clubs and members who attended included, Gar-denaires Club, Shirley Glenn, Mary Kristian and Lori Hintz; Terrace Garden Club, Nettie Miner, Mildred Jungels, Thelma Ruppel, Myrtle Hickman and Tomes Kirchhoff.

Cloverview Club, Dorothy Mekamp, Claudia Lentz, Jean Orr; Garden Study Club, Lucille Broyles, Norma Crenshaw, Marie Eads, Genevieve McCombs, Dorothy Miller, Judith Donley, Clara Winter and Ethel Seymour.

Guests present were Nettie Harshbarger, Mary Lee Herman, Betty Scrum, Tammy Palovich, Jane White, Blanche Revell, Irene Hayes, Helen Scarritt, Pauline Baker, Janet Labill, Becky Corzilius, Blanche Lewis.

Members of the host club, Jean Bethel, Wanda Kincaid, Betty King, June Lux, Beula Miller, Frances Polley, Clara Schilling, Pearl Young, Wanda Herman, Alma Irvin and those mentioned.

Awards highlight Pontoon Lions 1st annual installation dinner

By KEN THOMPSON
Press-Record Staff Writer
More than 80 persons attended the Pontoon Beach Lions Club's first annual installation of new officers and community awards dinner Monday night at which outgoing President Donald D. Patrick introduced newly-elected President Richard McIntosh.

"Support your new president as you have supported me this past year," Patrick said.

"We have accomplished goals in representing our community, but most important, we have earned respect for the Lions Club of Pontoon Beach."

Calling for the citizens and club members to learn to work together and "not be jealous or envious of another's efforts," Patrick quoted the late Dr.

Martin Luther King in stressing his plea for cooperation in accomplishing future projects.

"We will all learn to live together as brothers, or we will all perish together as fools," he quoted.

McIntosh, a member of the Pontoon Beach Police Department, became the fourth president of the club which was organized in 1973.

Past presidents include Floyd David Moss, 1973-75, Jerry W. Henderson, 1975-76, and Patrick.

Officers installed along with the new president who will help guide the club during the next 12 months are: Mike Bradley Briggs, vice-president; James Whaley Jr., second vice-president; Robert L. Carroll, secretary; Chester E. Dean Sr.,

treasurer; Vince Thorpe, tall twister; Frank L. Cramer, lion tamer; and Loren Madison, director.

Thorpe was announced as recipient of the Lion of the Year award for his dedication over the past three years.

The award read "For outstanding service, loyalty and devotion to Lionism."

Patrick urged McIntosh to continue striving toward club goals of acquiring its own meeting hall and providing a community park which would include lighted fields for sporting events.

Pontoon Beach Patrolman Mike Stalcoff was given a standing ovation when announced as the club's selection for the Medal of Valor.

Stalcoff, 22, who has been with the department three years, was credited on April 19 with saving the life of a four-day-old baby in the village through fast action and ingenuity.

Eric Zingrich, a son of Mrs. Donna Zingrich, 3846 Lake St., was choking and had stopped breathing by the time Stalcoff arrived.

Stalcoff noted the child appeared to be suffocating from food and mucus in its nose and throat and used part of a hypodermic syringe found in the home to remove the substance from the child's throat and nose and then got the baby breathing again.

The club's choice to receive a Pontoon Beach Citizen of the Year award was announced as Mr. and Mrs. John Karlechik, 4116 Lake Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Karlechik were cited for their outstanding public service record to the community.

Mr. Karlechik, it was noted, served as a justice of the peace from 1967 to 1969 and then six years as a Nameeki Township Clerk.

From 1955 to 1970 he served as treasurer of the Long Lake Fire Protection District, and was one of the founders of the Long Lake Emergency Corps in addition to serving as fire chief there.

A committeeman with Boy Scout Troop 23 and a member of the Long Lake Amvets, Karlechik has been a member several years of the Nameeki Township Property Owners Council, and presently is a

CITIZENS OF THE YEAR. Mr. and Mrs. John Karlechik were cited for their outstanding community contributions through public service by the Pontoon Beach Lions Club during an awards dinner Monday evening. The couple has been active in public positions since 1957.

Heavy holiday traffic expected

Captain Albert J. Bertagnoli, commander, Illinois State Police District, Maryville, anticipates heavy traffic conditions on Illinois highways during the holiday weekend.

In an effort to reduce traffic accidents, motorists are being urged to voluntarily comply with all traffic laws.

Troopers will be on duty to assist any motorist who is encountering any problem while traveling, and to strictly enforce all traffic laws, the commander said.

Violation of a traffic law is a "driver error," the leading cause of most accidents.

"You, the driver, must accept the responsibility to avoid violations and to drive safely," Capt. Bertagnoli said.

"In order to have a safe trip, you must also have a safe vehicle."

"Illinois State Police assist statistics for the 1976

Fourth of July weekend indicate the following types of problems motorists encountered: 198 motor failure, 137 tire problems, 84 out of fuel, 87 cooling problems and 38 electrical problems.

"Many of these problems can be eliminated by a pre-trip safety check of your vehicle."

"If your vehicle is disabled, drive or push it onto the shoulder well away from moving traffic."

"Use your emergency flasher lights, and put out flags or flares, if available. Remain near your vehicle while waiting for assistance."

THEFT FROM AUTO
A $190 citizens band radio and microphone were stolen from the auto of Mike Wakefield, 1716 Primrose Ave., parked at his home early this week. A clothes hanger was believed used to unlock the car door.

Woman, son, 7, beaten on bike trail near Pontoon

Madison county sheriff's deputies are attempting to identify a youth who assaulted a 26-year-old Pontoon Beach woman and her 7-year-old son on the Madison County Nature Trail between Pontoon Beach and Edwardsville during the weekend, beating both with a soft drink bottle.

Sought is a youth, about 16, six feet tall, thin, having fair skin and "hair so blonde it is almost white," the woman victim told deputies.

The youth rode a black bicycle with no fenders, she said. The woman and her son were walking east on the nature trail from Pontoon Beach when they noticed the youth following them.

They were not too concerned, because several persons were using the walking and bicycle trail, but when no one else was around, the youth struck her on the head with a bottle. When she fell and put her right hand on her head to defend herself, he hit her right palm.

She screamed and the youth then struck her son on the back of his head with the bottle, turned back to her and started at her several seconds before leaving on the bicycle, the woman related.

She and her son were able to run to an overpass at East Chain of Rocks Road and send some children for help.

They were taken to a hospital where both required sutures.

GC benefit night at Fest July 17

Edwardsville-Glen Carbon, Granite City and Alton will be participating in a special Community Benefit Night at the Mississippi River Festival Sunday, July 17, when the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra will perform an evening of Rodgers and Hammerstein music.

Each of the communities involved will receive 20 per cent of the price of admission for each ticket (for which a coupon is turned in) to use for local community purposes.

"The idea with this pilot project is to help get local area communities increasingly involved with the Festival," explained Festival Director Lyle Ward.

"If this works as well as we hope, then we have plans to expand it next year to include all those communities that would like to become part of it."

The Edwardsville-Glen Carbon area, which is calling the evening "Land of Goshen Night," is using its part of the revenue to help construction of a new park.

The Granite City area will be using the money for support of its school district's music programs, and Alton is using the money to help support the Alton High "Marching 100."

The symphony that night will be starting at 8:30, performing with guest stars Gordon MacLae and Joyce Hall. Gordon Munford will be conductor and music director.

Also featured at the River Festival that day will be the 1977 Regional Arts and Crafts Fair.

Energy bill to governor

House Bill 1521, sponsored by Representative Joe Lucero, (D-Edwardsville) passes both chambers of the General Assembly and has been sent to the governor awaiting signature.

The bill was sponsored in the Senate by Senator John L. Knuppel (D-Virginia). This bill amends the Illinois Energy Resources Commission Act by adding provisions to the duties and responsibilities of the commission to study the need for legal remedies for the protection of solar rights and to investigate the need for coordination of federal programs with state and local agencies.

It is part of an 18 bill Energy Package endorsed by the Illinois Energy Resources Commission.

Rep. Lucero said, "The landowners' right to unobstructed sunlight in the future will provide a small incentive to its use within the State today. With the Federal Government's emphasis on promoting solar energy in their energy development program, the potential for legal disputes will increase. This bill anticipates the need to carefully evaluate these concerns to avoid problems in the near future."

Armed robber hits station

An armed robber wearing a ski mask took more than $150 cash from an attendant at the Madison Fine Service station, 1909 Edwardsville Road, last week, it was disclosed Monday by the Madison County Sheriff's Department.

Joseph Groce, attendant, said the man who wore a blue ski mask, pointed a pistol at him and ordered him to lie on the floor. Attempts to open the locked cash register were unsuccessful, so the gunman demanded the key from Groce.

He was unable to open it even with the key, so he ordered Groce to get up and open the register and then lie back on the floor.

The robber then fled around the building and north away from the scene on foot.

He said the gunman had "a large revolver which did not seem to match." He also noted the robber cocked the hammer of the pistol as he first approached Groce.

FROM THE GRANITE CITY BOARD OF REALTORS

The Granite City Board of Realtors believes the following information is a responsibility of theirs to inform the public of what can happen to you without a REALTOR to protect you, the Buyer at time of purchase. The following example is absolutely true:

A prospective buyer went to a local REALTOR and requested that a deed be prepared by the REALTOR's attorney. The REALTOR asked if the title had been updated and examined by an attorney. The buyer was confused. After explaining the importance of a title search upon the sale of a given piece of real estate, the buyer asked the REALTOR to handle the transaction for him making sure everything was legal and clear. Upon doing so, the following was discovered: Lots were purchased in 1922. The owner died in 1922—intestate (leaving no will). One lot was conveyed in 1956, but was not conveyed in the proper manner. One of the heirs was omitted from the conveyance and it is believed the chain of title was broken at that point. Said lot was conveyed twice in the last five years; however, heirs' rights, judgments, liens and taxes were filed against this property.

We believe that if a REALTOR had been involved from the beginning all of the above problems would never have transpired. Call your REALTOR about buying or selling. Don't let this happen to you.

Need for gym seen as urgent

President Kenneth A. Shaw of SIUE said Tuesday he is keeping his "fingers crossed" as Senate Bill 314 moves to Gov. James R. Thompson's desk. The bill, which has been approved by the legislature, would appropriate $190,000 to the Capital Development Board for planning a permanent physical education facility.

The university, which occupied its permanent campus in 1965, is the only major state institution of higher learning in Illinois without a permanent physical education and recreation facility of any kind. Dr. Shaw said he is hoping the governor, who has made it clear he wants to "hold the line" on fiscal expenditures for higher education, will "recognize the critical need at SIUE and will consider the university's request an emergency which must be dealt with as soon as possible."

The Senate bill, sponsored in the General Assembly by Sen. Sam Vadalabene, D-Edwardsville, and Rep. Joe E. Lucio, D-Edwardsville, sailed through both houses with little difficulty, but a major stumbling block may be the fact that the planning funds were given low priority by the Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE).

Pres. Shaw explained that the IBHE placed a low priority on all new building projects. "In general, we agree with this approach; however, we contend it fails to note the urgency of our needs in physical education and recreation. Indeed, higher on the IBHE list are renovation projects at institutions which have two or more physical education and recreation facilities.

"Others are being allowed to make improvements, while we cannot even plan for a beginning," Dr. Shaw protested. "From all standpoints, the university has an immediate, drastic need for such a building."

Senior hot line—Active retirement years urged

(Office of Lieutenant-Governor Dave O'Neal)
Q. I am now approaching the magical age of 65 when I can retire from active work. My rocker is positioned in front of the television set so I can at last sit down and relax and enjoy my much earned rest. Isn't that going to be great?

A. No. What you describe as retirement is a wait for death. People should not retire with the idea that everything is going to take care of itself. There are choices to be made and things that need planning.

Actually, you should have started planning much earlier. Organizing your life goals, and financial planning or estate planning, should start when one is in his or her twenties.

Deciding on your life style and what your financial needs will be to maintain that standard should start early so that you do not find yourself in a dilemma when you approach retirement.

You also need to plan for your interests and outside activities.

One of the worst things you can do is sit in that rocker and rest all of the time. Sometimes, yes; but, you must keep active, and involving yourself in your hobbies is one way.

A healthy retirement attitude is: "Now, I can do all the things I've always wanted to," or "Since I retired, I am busier and have more to do than I ever did before."

Develop friendships so you have someone to do things with. It's more fun, and you will keep going more that way.

Attend the activities at the Senior Action Centers or similar organizations in your area. Do volunteer work in areas that interest you.

Do something that gets you involved with young people. This will keep you young and give you a sense of purpose. Plan for some kind of mild exercise every day.

Lieutenant Governor Dave O'Neal's Senior Action Centers in Springfield and Chicago help with information, tax rebates, public aid, homestead exemptions, housing, social services, nutritional programs, Social Security, SSI, Medicare, Medicaid, transportation, senior rights, consumer complaints and any other concerns.

Write us at 160 N. LaSalle, Chicago, Ill. 60601 or 3 West Old Town Mall, Springfield, Ill. 62701 with questions or complaints about any government agency or program. This column will be covering the many questions senior citizens have on various subjects.

Zoning board Ok's permits

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals is recommending that the Madison County Board grant two permits for special use permits in Quad-City area townships, including a request to start a business.

The zoning board recommends approval of a request by James E. Howard for a permit to operate an insulation contracting business, known as Aero-Form Insulation, Inc., from his home at 4331 Breckenridge Lane, near Pontoon Beach.

The property is in an R-3 single-family residential district of Nameoki Township. The zoning board grants the permit be granted with the stipulation that there be no outside storage of materials or equipment.

The zoning board also is recommending that a special use permit be granted to Elsie Brauch to continue the placement of a mobile home on Chouteau Island in an agricultural district of Chouteau Island.

A previous permit for the same mobile home has expired. The recommendation is that the permit be granted for a period not to exceed five years and for the sole occupancy of Elsie Brauch.

July 4th picnics, parades a century ago

Illinois celebrated the "glorious Fourth" in 1877 with picnics, parades, boat and train excursions, fireworks displays, baseball games, patriotic speeches and several less usual entertainments.

But the patriotic enthusiasm which had marked the nation's centennial observances of the previous year seemed to have waned slightly, according to a check of hundred-year-old newspaper files in the Illinois State Historical Library.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean went so far as to say, "The glorious Fourth—no, on second thoughts, not the glorious Fourth, but the Fourth... was rather an inglorious Fourth."

The reason for this, the paper went on to say, was that the city administration had decided to enforce a longstanding but previously ignored law against dangerous fireworks.

Other cities that banned "pyrotechnic displays" included Harvard, Rock Island and Moline. Over most of the state, however, it was "Chinese firecrackers" as usual.

Another factor that slowed the celebrations was the weather—it was hot.

Correspondents from Aurora, Ottawa, Rock Island, Lincoln, Champaign and Bushnell all complained of "the hottest day of the year," with temperatures in the 90s. At LaSalle, it was "100 in the shade."

Chicago's fireworks ban did not put an end to the noise or the hazards.

The Inter Ocean listed more than a dozen boys, ranging in age from 11 to 18 years, who suffered gunshot wounds.

One 15-year-old who indulged in "artillery practice" in the morning "spent the rest of the day at home speculating as to the immediate cause of his right thumb."

When a bartender's son amused himself by shooting down a Chinese laundry sign on Clark Street, one of his bullets glanced off and killed a 13-year-old girl who had just come around the corner.

Although there was no citywide celebration, Chicagoans were offered a variety of July 4 diversions.

"The public parks were fairly overrun with visitors" and "every grove within 20 miles of the city contained from one to a couple of dozen picnic parties."

P. T. Barnum's "New and Only Greatest Show on Earth, at the lakefront" turned away "literally thousands" in the afternoon and evening.

The showing of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Adelphi profited by the overflow of the circus.

The steamers of the Goodrich Line made hourly trips to and from Evanston and other boats made runs along the shore. Cornerstone laying at the new Cook County courthouse attracted a disappointing crowd of 300, but 12,000 saw the "Chicago" defeat the "Athens" 12-2 at the baseball park.

Some of the towns where there were large parades and organized celebrations were El Paso, Aurora, Bushnell, Champaign, Decatur, Carlinville, Odell and LaSalle.

The parades usually led to picnic grounds, where the patriotic speech of the "orator of the day" would be preceded by band music and the reading of the Declaration of Independence.

The latter feature was so well established that reporters, instead of using the full title, frequently said simply that "The Declaration" was read.

Springfield was one of the cities where there was "no very imposing street demonstration." The Illinois State Journal reported that the city's two military units went to Williamsville to do their parading. And an excursion train took a large crowd to Pana, where Sen. Richard J. Oglesby was the orator.

At Lincoln, the "crowning feature of the day" occurred when "Captain A. H. Bogardus, the champion wing-shot of the world," broke 1,000 out of 1,027 glass balls in 72½ minutes, loading his own gun—the fastest time on record. "The balls were sprung from a trap; distance 21 yards."

Railroad tax bill $923,663

Fourteen operating railroads in Madison County have been billed for a total of $923,663 in 1976 taxes payable this year, according to County Clerk Evelyn Bowles.

Miss Bowles said the railroad tax book has been completed and has been turned over to County Treasurer George Musso for collection.

She said an additional $12,818 has been extended under Schedule 31 which consists of taxes on improvements on leased ground from the railroad and the individual owner of the improvements.

Also included in the railroad tax book are extensions of $54,235 for the Wood River Levee and Drainage District, and $104 for the Chautauque, Namecki and Venice Levee and Drainage District.

The additional extensions bring the total tax in the railroad book to $941,712, Miss Bowles said.

Of the total tax for railroads, the largest sum of $541,988 will go to school districts in the county. Madison County government will receive $102,857 and cities and villages will receive $83,158. These allocations are on the basis of a 100 per cent collection.

Other tax extensions in the railroad book include $42,116 to towns, $44,200 to road and bridge districts, $26,974 to sanitary districts, $17,373 to fire districts, $19,901 to high schools and $37,736 to community colleges.

Largest tax bill is extended against the Illinois Terminal Railroad in the amount of $289,237, while the Terminal Railroad Association of St. Louis is charged $116,963 in 1976 taxes.

Other railroad tax bills are: Alton & Southern, $59,289; Burlington Northern, Inc., $29,580; Chicago & Eastern Illinois, $36,528; Chicago & Northwestern, $19,990; Illinois Central Gulf (GM&O), $51,024; Illinois Central Gulf (ICRR), $22,961.

Norfolk & Western (NYC and St. Louis), $70,308; Norfolk & Western (Wabash), $110,410; Penn Central (NYC) (CCC & St. Louis), $80,553; Penn Central (Penn), $43,844; Southern Railway, $185 and Union Pacific, $3,603.

REPORT SHOTS FIRED

Madison police were told at 3:20 a.m. Sunday that four men in an old Rambler station wagon had driven past the Sportsman's Club, 1001 Iowa St., twice, firing shots at cars and the building on each pass. No damage was noted and authorities now believe the noises were caused by firecrackers.

Cyst nematodes appearing in some bean fields in county

By RON CORNWELL

Extension Farm Adviser

Soybean cyst nematode affected areas in soybean fields are beginning to appear in Madison County.

These areas don't normally show up until late July or August when the soybeans are under drought stress. This year the areas are showing up in June in Madison County because of the dry weather stress on soybeans.

There are certain symptoms in a soybean field that can alert you to a possible cyst nematode problem.

The first noticeable sign is the development of oval patches of stunted yellowing plants in one or more areas of the field. These areas often appear to be a nutrient deficiency.

The second sign is the soybeans in the center of the circle or oval area are more severely stunted than beans near the edge of the area.

Don't jump to conclusions. Because a discolored area appears in a soybean field, it doesn't mean that nematodes are necessarily present.

The cyst nematode is a microscopic, colorless worm-shaped larvae that attacks the roots of the soybean plant. As it completes its life cycle, cysts about the size of a pin head form on the roots of the soybean plant.

One female cyst can produce from 200 to 600 eggs and as many as five generations of cysts can be completed in a single season. If one cyst containing 400 eggs is introduced into a soybean field in the spring, over 10 trillion cysts could be produced in one growing season.

Control of the soybean cyst nematode is the difficult problem. There is no effective chemical control at the present time.

Resistant varieties exist for Southern Illinois but it will be about five years before varieties for Central Illinois are released.

The main cyst nematode resistant variety available for this area is Custer. Custer is in the soybean variety plots in Madison County. The regular variety plots are located on Gene Diabert's farm near Marine and Don Severs' farm near Staunton.

Past variety yield trials in Southern Illinois show Custer yields less than other soybean varieties adapted to the area. The exception is when the variety is planted in a cyst nematode infested area. In this situation, the yields of non-resistant varieties drop to 4 or 5 bushel per acre. Custer maintains its yield.

Early identification of the problem is the best way to deal with it at the present time. Following a crop rotation is the only way to reduce the cyst nematode problem. It is recommended the field be rotated out of soybeans for at least three years.

The cyst is scattered within the field or between fields with equipment. Fields with cyst nematode infestations should be worked last to prevent spread to clean fields.

If you suspect soybean cyst nematode in a field, contact the Extension office. We can aid in identification of the problem.

Growing tree fruits in the home orchard can be an interesting and satisfying hobby for the home gardener. Fruit trees do require considerable care. To provide the homeowner information on fruit tree care, a circular is available through the local Extension office entitled "Growing Tree Fruits in the Home Orchard."

The circular covers care of apple, peach, apricot, cherry, pear and plum trees. The circular is available at no charge from the Extension office.

One of the more popular plants grown in the home garden is the tomato. Tomatoes are easy to grow in the backyard or home garden.

To provide gardeners information on tomatoes, we have available a circular on "Growing Tomatoes at Home." This circular is available through your local University of Illinois Extension Service office. The Madison County office is at 900 Hillsboro, Edwardsville.

Many GI Bill students take refresher courses

At least one out of ten Vietnamera GI Bill students has received refresher or deficiency courses to qualify for higher education under the GI Bill's "free entitlement" provisions; the Veterans Administration has reported.

More than 750,000 persons have taken advantage of the training opportunities without depletion of their basic GI Bill eligibility.

The trainees represent more than 11 per cent of the 6.9 million persons who have trained under the current GI Bill since 1966.

Eligible GI Bill students may receive full benefits while training for high school completion. Others who have completed high school but need refresher or remedial courses for entrance into training, also may take the necessary courses on a free-entitlement basis.

A special outreach effort by VA benefits counselors during the past year was credited with a 33 per cent increase in free entitlement enrollments.

Repeated contacts are made with veterans with less than four years high school in an effort to interest them in training.

Allowances for GI Bill students training full time is $292 per month with additional allowances for those students with dependents. Students are entitled to a maximum 45 months educational assistance for 10 years after release from active duty, but not later than Dec. 31, 1969.

Conserve energy
INSULATE NOW

Could your home be more comfortable? Could you use energy more wisely? There's a simple answer . . . Insulation.

Don't take it for granted that your home is adequately insulated. Most homes don't have insulation that measures up to today's higher, energy-conscious standards. Many older homes have none at all.

Your Energy Use Advisor at Illinois Power Company can tell you if you have adequate insulation between joists in your attic. As for exterior walls, if they're cold to the touch in winter, insulation is needed.

Insulation can provide more than a comfortable, quiet home. It's also a wise investment that increases your home's value.

For the answer to total home comfort, talk to an insulation contractor or building supply dealer.

IP ILLINOIS POWER

Radical change seen due to fuel shortages

Venturing into the thicket of prediction, Congressman Paul Simon believes there is a real energy crisis that will radically change America within a decade.

The Downstate Democrat has said the public, as the result of scandals, may mistrust the government and big oil companies, but he added: "Don't fool yourself; the energy crisis is real."

This came home to him when Federal Energy Administrator John F. O'Leary testified that only two trillion cubic feet of natural gas was discovered last year against a demand for 13 trillion cubic feet, and that half the homes now being heated by natural gas will use another fuel by 1985.

"These two statistics tell a part of the problem we face," Simon said. "And to pretend the problem does not exist, or to avoid taking some decisive action on it, is shortsighted." Simon thinks there will be changes in the way Americans heat and light their homes and transport themselves as radical as the arrival of television and its impact on entertainment.

Like most observers, he expects new cars from next year on to be smaller and the price of all forms of fuel to increase.

He also thinks home insulation will be mandatory. But he seems to look farther ahead than most in other predictions, the Press-Record's Washington Bureau said after interviewing him.

"If you own your home or real estate, you will have a harder and harder time selling any housing property if it is not insulated," Simon believes.

"The government eventually will force this to happen, but for most people the market for houses will force insulation before the government does."

"Within five years," Simon predicts, "inexpensive bike trails will be built along many of our streets and highways."

"Within 10 years in some of the larger cities, you will have to pay a toll drive on the streets during the hours of heavy traffic."

Simon thinks there will be changes in the way Americans heat and light their homes and transport themselves as radical as the arrival of television and its impact on entertainment.

Like most observers, he

Final summer session for GC park ID cards

Residents of the Granite City Park District wishing to obtain a district identification card to participate at reduced cost in swimming and other summer activities should report to the Wilson Park office, in person, between 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. today (Thursday) or from 10 a.m. until 11 a.m. Friday.

Harold Brown, park district superintendent, said tonight and Friday's sessions will be the final time IDs will be issued until the fall, probably prior to the opening of the ice skating rink in October.

A total of 270 persons received ID cards the last time they were issued, Brown noted.

The plasticized cards, affixed with the bearer's photograph, cost $1 each. They remain in effect for a three-year period.

Individuals wanting an ID card are required to attend the session in person, as a photograph is taken and the card is processed immediately. The entire procedure takes about three minutes.

cannot be used for the ID cards, the superintendent emphasized. Frequently, parents are disappointed upon presenting individual pictures of their family and cards are unable to be issued, he explained.

Proof of residency is required to receive an ID card, Brown said. A receipted utility bill is sufficient, he added.

'Wings' opens MRF film series

(SUE News Service)
The opening film for the Mississippi River Festival's film series, starting today, is much more than just the first film for this summer's Festival, held on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

"Wings," a 1929 drama with some spectacular aerial shots, is also the first film to win the Academy Award as best film. "Wings" also has Gary Cooper in a cameo role," said Dennis Crook, a sophomore at SIUE who headed up the film selection committee for this year's Festival. "It was the movie that really catapulted Cooper to stardom."

"Wings" is also a movie representative of the Roaring 20's, and that sort of representation is something the committee looked for in each of the films shown this summer. "We tried to pick six films that represented their eras," said Dennis Crook, a sophomore at SIUE, who led the group of film buffs who chose this summer's selection.

On July 7, "Grand Hotel," a 1932 movie about the litter and bustle of life in an upper-crust hotel, will be shown. John and Lionel Barrymore, Greta Garbo and Joan Crawford come together in the movie to "provide the kind of release audiences wanted in the hard times of the 30's," said Crook. "People wanted to forget their worries, and movies like this classic helped do just that."

The third in the series is "Mrs. Miniver," scheduled for Thursday, July 14. The movie delves into the impact of the war on an upper-middle class English family. William Wyler directed Greer Garson through her role as a pre-war gadabout to a war-time heroine of emotional strength and dignity.

On July 21, "A Streetcar Named Desire" brings back Marion Brande in one of his classic performances as Stanley Kowalski, who torments and destroys Stella, played by Vivien Leigh. Playwright Tennessee Williams' drama has become a standard starting point for discussions of American society by filmmakers and playwrights.

The movie representing the 60's, scheduled July 28, is "Days of Wine and Roses," in which Jack Lemmon and Lee Remick portray a couple devastated by its slide into alcoholic degradation. The 1962 film, also starring Charles Bickford, is one of Lemmon's classic dramatic roles as he travels the route from social drinker to alcoholic and back. The final film, scheduled for Thursday, Aug. 4, is "Serpico," which combines a close look at urban law enforcement with incredible action and suspense. Al Pacino triumphs as the literate cop struggling to maintain his integrity against the momentum of modern society in this 1974 film.

"All the films are free again this year," said Crook, "because we want to make it as easy as possible for people to come and enjoy these shows. We'll be showing them in Meridian Hall, in the University Center on campus."

Discharges being upgraded

As of June 6, nearly 40,000 inquiries had been received under the Special Discharge Review Program announced April 5, 1977. Of these, about 24,500 (61 per cent) were found eligible for review under the special program, a newly-completed Defense Department tally shows.

Of the eligible cases, approximately 16,200 had received Undesirable Discharges; 8,000 had received General Discharges; and 300 had received Clemency Discharges. Case reviews began in early May, and by June 3, 6,541 administrative discharges had been upgraded to Honorable or General.

During the Vietnam Era (Aug. 4, 1964, through March 28, 1973), 173,000 Undesirable Discharges were issued. It is estimated that 17,500 of these have since been upgraded.

This estimate includes the 5,489 mentioned earlier as well as those upgraded through established discharge review procedures prior to announcement of the special program. Recipients of upgraded discharges are eligible to apply for veterans' benefits.

The Special Discharge Review Program also contains provisions applicable to Vietnam Era deserters who are still at large.

As of June 6, there had been 539 deserter inquiries, of which 445 were determined to be eligible to participate in the program.

Of those eligible, 239 had actually returned to military control, been separated and applied to have their discharge reviewed for possible upgrading.

The Special Discharge Review Program is still under way, and interested individuals are being encouraged to telephone the Joint Liaison Office in St. Louis to determine eligibility and make application for review and upgrading of a General or Undesirable Discharge.

Veterans who received a General or Undesirable Discharge during the Vietnam Era may call toll-free 800-325-4040 for all locations in the United States except Missouri, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico, where individuals should call collect 314-423-9120.

Deserters-at-large from the Vietnam Era may inquire about their status and eligibility by telephoning collect the appropriate military department number:

U.S. Army, 317-542-3354.
U.S. Navy, 202-694-2386.

U.S. Air Force, 800-531-7500.
U.S. Marine Corps, 202-694-2180.
U.S. Coast Guard, 202-426-1317.

The Special Discharge Review Program will continue through Oct. 4. Special discharge review boards established by the military departments will remain in session until all cases have been reviewed.

Beginning acts at MRF rank with headliners

By KAREN BURNS

This season, as in summers past, festival-goers to the Mississippi River Festival, held on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, will find that the opening acts for many of the scheduled events are just as much of an attraction as the headliners.

Stars like Jimmy Buffett, Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes, Minnie Riperton, Rita Coolidge, Phyllis Hyman, and others all have their own strong contingent of fans who come to see their favorites as much as the headline act.

Opening the show for Boz Scaggs last night were Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes, "horn-driven" rhythm and blues musicians.

The Jukes are 10 guys headed by Southside Johnny Lyons, who in his early years looked to the South Side of Chicago for a style of music to follow.

Eventually, Lyons began singing with bands and soon formed the Asbury Jukes, a group whose style was greatly influenced by Bruce Springsteen, though, said Lyons in a Rolling Stone interview, "I can't think in terms of what effect Bruce's career had on us. I mean, how can you think of that stuff when he's been your friend for years and has gone through all the same struggles?"

Other groups whose music influenced the Jukes include The Drifters, Coasters, and Five Satins, all of whom make appearances on the Jukes two Epic albums, "I Don't Want to Go Home," and "This Time It's for Real."

"After our songs were written," said Lyons, "we realized they fit the particular artists who perfected those forms. So it was natural to bring them into the studio with us."

Lyons said the thing about his music is that it's honest, and every note counts. "Our music works because it's good to dance, drink and have a good time to."

Joining the Sylvers on Friday, July 1, is Phyllis Hyman, who achieved national prominence with her singing on Norman Corbett's album, "You Are My Starship."

Miss Hyman interprets songs in a variety of musical idioms ... pop, jazz, R & B, and blues.

"My gimmick," she says, "is to be me. I don't make up speeches for the stage, and I'm not into theatrics when I sing because I want people to enjoy my singing."

Miss Hyman became a favorite of New York fans in December 1975 after her first club appearance at Rust Brown. Since then, she has built an avid following at Mikkell's where her appearances mean a standing-room-only crowd.

The Ozark Mountain Daredevils will be coming to the MRF on Wednesday, July 20, and with them will be 30-year-old Jimmy Buffett who also toured with The Eagles this year.

His music, which Time magazine calls "countryified Caribbean," is a blend of "folksy" Southern rock and "infatuation with the Caribbean."

Buffett's seventh album, "Changes in Latitudes, Changes in Attitudes," is 20th among country LPs, and his recent "Wastin' Away Again in Margaritaville" is high on the top 40's list.

Buffett lives aboard a 33-foot ketch called "Euphoria" and island-hops through the Antilles. His seagoing impulses were bred in Mobile, Ala., at a local shipyard where his father was a naval architect.

Buffett left home at 18, began touring the Southern honky-tonk circuit, and recorded his first album in Nashville. He has since set up his own publishing company and recently negotiated a new contract with ABC records which undoubtedly will bring about more of his Caribbean-style music.

Other back-up artists to appear at the MRF this season include Minnie Riperton with George Benson, Rita Coolidge and Billy Swan with Kris Kristofferson, and Section with Jackson Browne.

Motor fuel tax funds allotted

Illinois municipalities have been allotted $14,636,384 as their share of motor fuel tax paid into the state treasury during May, according to the Illinois Department of Transportation.

Motor fuel tax funds are allocated monthly to the various municipalities in Illinois for their streets and highways. The monies allocated are computed on the basis of population.

Allotment to Granite City was $62,470. Madison received $10,535 and Venice $7,002.

Illinois townships and road districts statewide received a total of $3,945,387. Of the amount, allocations in Madison County amounted to $49,969.

A total of $5,447,479 was distributed to Illinois Counties, except Cook County, with $202,392 going to Madison County.

Other back-up artists to appear at the MRF this season include Minnie Riperton with George Benson, Rita Coolidge and Billy Swan with Kris Kristofferson, and Section with Jackson Browne.

GC logical place for new National Steel Corp. facilities

As disclosed exclusively in the nation by the Press-Record on June 9, National Steel Corporation President Howard M. "Pete" Love will move his office to the corporate headquarters in Pittsburgh late this year, seven years after his arrival here to head the Granite City Steel Division.

While his departure from this metropolitan area will be in some ways sad, the loss will be tempered by the knowledge that he has built a permanent and fully-reciprocal friendship with this community and region.

"I came out here as a skeptic, and you made a believer out of me," he has told the Granite City Steel Management Club in a sort of farewell visit.

"Granite City Steel has become the best-performing steelmaking division of National Steel. You have become the lowest cost producer over the past two years, and this is a tribute to both employees and management."

In addition to the July 7 opening of the division's new water treatment plant at Horseshoe Lake, he listed as changes in the near future: increased use of scrap in local blast furnaces; start-up of the new (fourth) slab furnace in the hot strip; and regular hot-crop charging at the basic oxygen furnace.

His visualization increased employee participation in management, and greater listening to employees' views, leading to an improved image for businesses in the eyes of their workers and the public. He foresees National Steel doubling its sales and profit with relatively the same plant investment and the same employment total over the next decade.

Noting that the corporation reduced its proposed $1 billion expansion of steelmaking facilities at Midwest Steel, Portage, Ind., President Love said investing that amount in securities would provide a 20 per cent greater return than would the production of steel at its current price of $340 a ton.

Because of this, higher profitability is seen as essential for steel firms in order for them to continue to attract Americans' financial backing.

He added that if Granite City Steel continues its "fine performance," when National Steel does, build more basic facilities — such as blast furnaces and coke ovens — a logical place to locate them would be at Granite City.

Physical education building should be 'exception to rule'

SIUU President Kenneth Shaw accurately pointed out this week that Senate Bill 314 deserves special attention as it reaches the governor's desk.

While the Illinois Board of Higher Education is giving low priority to all new physical building projects, $190,000 ought to be allocated for planning of a permanent physical education and recreation facility at SIUU, the only major Illinois institution of higher learning without one.

Citing an urgent need here, Dr. Shaw commented, "Higher on the IBHE list are renovation projects at institutions which have two or more such facilities. Others are being allowed to make improvements, while we cannot even plan for a beginning."

A temporary "bubble gym" at SIUU, completed in 1973, is nearing the end of its projected life span. Even if planning funds are approved this year, the earliest a new building could be completed and operational would be in 1981.

Even with the bubble gym included, the local university has only 24,198 square feet of physical education and recreation space available for over 11,000 students — considerably less than any other state university in Illinois, even Governors State University, which has only 3,363 full-time — equivalent students.

Dr. Shaw believes the lack of space has hampered efforts to develop a full-fledged intercollegiate athletic program for women, and both the men's and women's intercollegiate basketball teams are forced to train and play their "home" games in nearby high schools, resulting in little student interest, either as spectators or participants.

"The university's athletic program cannot include a number of indoor sports, such as gymnastics and swimming, because of the lack of facilities."

"The absence of adequate facilities on campus means students must find other places to meet their needs. This shortens their time on campus and works against their overall intellectual and social growth."

Studies have proved that students will make better use of academic resources on campus if the environment is so attractive that students are encouraged to stay and make maximum use of available physical resources."

Randall Robertson honored with state ethics appointment

In appointing Randall Robertson of Granite City as a member of the State Board of Ethics on June 22, Governor James R. Thompson made an excellent choice.

The veteran local attorney, legal counsel for the Granite City Park District and the Tri-City Regional Port District, joins Cordell Overgaard, Evanston lawyer and accountant, and Doris Bernstein of Highland Park on the ethics board. Board members, who serve without pay, will review economic interest statements filed by an estimated 3,000 state employees; the current filing deadline is July 15.

Compensation law revised

By CARVL CARSTENS
Press-Record
Springfield Bureau

Compromise workmen's compensation legislation went to the governor's desk Friday following passage in the Senate by a vote of 34 to 22.

The Senate approved amendments placed on a Senate bill in the House. The legislation passed the House Thursday, June 23.

All other workmen's compensation legislation was expected to remain on the House and Senate calendars and not be called during the balance of the spring session.

In a joint statement by Speaker William Redmond for himself and Senate President Thomas Hynes, the two Democrats stated: "A spokesman for the Democratic majorities in both the House and the Senate, it is our position that we have reached the reasoned balance, in the form of Senate Bill 1019."

Some Republicans in both the House and Senate voted for the compromise legislation, although their leaders urged defeat of the measure and passage of employer-backed compensation legislation, Senate Bill 600.

That bill passed the Senate and was in the House at passage stage. However, Rep. Gerald Bradley, D-Bloomington, House sponsor, said he would not call the bill.

"As far as I'm concerned, the battle is over," said Bradley. The battle began almost as soon as reform legislation, improving the payments made to injured workers and their families, was passed by the legislature in 1975.

Rates paid by the employers for compensation insurance immediately began to climb. Redmond said Friday there had been little improvement in workmen's compensation for six years prior to passage of the 1975 legislation.

Employers' groups apparently were not aware of the effect of the 1975 legislation, because they did not communicate opposition to the legislators, according to the speaker.

SB 1019, if signed into law, will reduce benefits paid to injured workmen. Automatic increases built into the 1975 law will be removed, and the maximum of $250,000 on death benefits added.

The present law has no maximum on benefits.

To the Editor:

The newly-elected alderman in the First Ward already thinks he's president.

He has no regard for protocol, and doesn't have the desire to be civil, but is exceptionally good at creating chaos in council meetings.

Among all the things he promised people in his ward, he definitely did not mention that he would not be available, nor senseless and boring — should be left for future courtroom dramas.

I doubt that he is the "panacea" come to "save us all."

Independence declared 201 years ago

To the Editor:

Birthdays are always special. They give people a chance to get together with friends and relatives.

Perhaps the grandest birthday gathering in history was our nation's Bicentennial last year, July 4. It was a birthday party to satisfy the birthday dreams of children and adults alike.

This year is the 201st birthday of the Declaration of Independence.

The Declaration of Independence is a document drawn up in 1776 by a committee of the Second Continental Congress comprising Thomas Jefferson of Virginia, John Adams of Massachusetts, Robert R. Livingston of New York and Benjamin Franklin of Pennsylvania.

A draft was reported by this committee on June 28, On July 2, a resolution was adopted declaring the colonies free and independent states.

And on July 4, the Declaration of Independence was agreed to, engrossed on paper and signed by John Hancock, president.

The independence of the United States was acknowledged by France Jan. 16, 1778, and by Holland April 19, 1782. Provisional articles of peace were signed by England Sept. 3, 1782.

Through the education of the youth of our land, we can succeed in spreading the story of the deeds and heroism of our American soldiers.

The Daughters of Union Veterans are taught "to respect the flag, our country and government — no matter what party controls the United States, Republicans or Democrats."

Being a patriotic American means to the DUV members to be loyal to this great country, and to believe in the principles for which it stands.

"Breathes the man with soul so dead, who never to himself hath said, 'This is my own, my native land?'"

Citizens are ashamed, timid and even apologetic. We seem to have cancerous decay.

I heard a song which was a symbol of unity no matter what political party you prefer, or what religious organization you belong to.

Patriotism should stand for the best that is in our souls — faith in our democracy, character and loyalty.

Let us go back to spiritual and ethical values and rekindle old fashioned way of patriotism. It doesn't cost a cent.

Impressed by local team's attitude

To the Editor:

In this day and time it seems like all we ever hear or read about are the young people who get into trouble and the like.

Maybe we are at fault for not taking time to talk about the good things and things they do. Well, with regard to a group of young men and the coaches that were in our city recently, I feel I would indeed be at fault if I didn't take time to tell you about them.

I am speaking about the baseball team named the Blue Jays and Harold Humphries and his other coaches.

My sons have played baseball and my husband coached for 12 years.

In this time, we have met many teams and their coaches. I can honestly say never have we met and played a better-mannered group which showed better sportsmanship than your team.

They had a good time, played well and fairly. They took defeat with grace and a big smile. They took victory with, "You played well, but it was just going our way this time."

And it was contagious, because our boys had a better than average time. Your good humor helped ease the defeat you handed us.

You can tell your team is taught a high caliber of baseball, and is well coached.

Never in all these years have I heard such an endorsement of the drug, which is manufactured from apricot pits.

The House concurred 125 to 25 Monday.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration, major cancer treating centers and medical societies say the substance is worthless.

As many as 50,000 U.S. cancer victims have traveled outside the country to seek the treatment, however, said sponsor Sen. Albert Lane, D-South Holland.

One point in making up many senators' minds was a requirement that doctors may

Nation has avoided energy as economic issue—Tenenbaum

Over the past quarter century, energy usage has been increasing about 25 per cent in the American steel industry. However, further energy-conservation programs will be more costly and the gains more difficult to achieve as uncertainties result from the absence of clear energy or economic signals from governmental bodies.

These and other remarks were delivered by Michael Tenenbaum, president of Inland Steel Company, in an address before the American Iron and Steel Institute's 85th General Meeting.

Mr. Tenenbaum's address, entitled "Reflections on Steel's Energy Maze," dealt with the fact that "this nation for years has avoided considering energy as an economic issue."

"Energy problems have been regarded as political, social, humanitarian or national security concerns," Tenenbaum said, "but there has been no real reduction to face up to economic realities and provide business and industry with reliable signals to help make rational judgments regarding large energy-related investments."

The inland executive cited the difficult situation in recent years of sorting out and interpreting the "myriad of energy-related signals" issuing from government.

"In using the steel industry as an example, Mr. Tenenbaum said it is the most important supplier of structural materials, of which a substantial proportion are used in energy-producing or energy-consuming end products. In addition, it is also a major user of energy in its manufacturing operations."

The manufacture of steel consumes about five per cent of the nation's energy, he noted. In 1976, coal supplied two-thirds of the energy used by the industry, while the remainder was provided by natural gas, oil and purchased electricity.

In this regard, he said two energy-related objectives have been established for steel manufacture: "First, to reduce total energy-use-per-ton of products and, second, to conserve critical fuels (oil and natural gas) through the substitution of coal."

In order to illustrate how economic and regulatory uncertainties complicate steel industry energy planning, Tenenbaum presented three examples designed to demonstrate "how major energy-related planning decisions can become entangled in a maze of conflicting signals."

"As brought out in the case studies," he said, "the facilities required for substantial replacement of critical fuels with coal require major changes in plant operations with attendant huge capital investments."

"Shortages of capital and marginal returns have been the dominant reasons for inhibiting the tremendous investment required to build major steel manufacturing facilities," he continued.

In noting recent messages from the Carter Administration in regard to energy and energy principles, programs and policies, Tenenbaum noted the purpose of his address was to "indicate some major concerns that should receive serious consideration by those who shape our nation's energy and economic policies. Among these concerns are the need for policies that:

— "Provide consistent economic, energy and other policy signals which can be used as a basis for orderly decisionmaking."

— "Develop equitable incentive programs supportive of national objectives which encourage investments in appropriately conceived, energy-related capital projects."

— "Clarify the conflicting regulatory signals in the past and which still are emerging from governmental agencies."

— "Encourage industry to be increasingly aggressive in assessing energy projects consistent with our national energy goals."

"It is essential that efforts be made to minimize uncertainties regarding long-range national policies and objectives so as to provide a framework within which required large capital programs can be planned," he added. "It is only through mutual understanding and support that steps can be taken to meet the objective of establishing a steel industry that is truly competitive in the world market."

"We must all contribute responsibly to meeting the social and economic needs of our nation."

Laetrile approval

By MIKE KIENZLER
Press-Record
Springfield Bureau

The Illinois Senate approved use of the purported anti-cancer drug, Laetrile, late Thursday, even though many members apparently are far from convinced it is effective.

The vote on the proposal was 32 to 18, but nearly every Senator speaking for the bill said the vote was for "freedom of choice," not an endorsement of the drug, which is manufactured from apricot pits.

The House concurred 125 to 25 Monday.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration, major cancer treating centers and medical societies say the substance is worthless.

As many as 50,000 U.S. cancer victims have traveled outside the country to seek the treatment, however, said sponsor Sen. Albert Lane, D-South Holland.

One point in making up many senators' minds was a requirement that doctors may give Laetrile only to terminally ill cancer patients, who request it after being informed of all other available treatments, and telling them Laetrile has no proven medical value.

The state Department of Public Health would regulate production of the drug.

"I'm personally convinced Laetrile is just about worthless," said Sen. Don Wooten, D-East St. Louis.

"But under the circumstances, it's difficult to oppose the bill."

Oppent Sen. Mark Rhoads, R-Western Springs, argued legalizing Laetrile treatments implies legislative endorsement of the drug.

"I'm concerned we'll be misleading people and encouraging them to use the substance," he said.

The House agreement sends the measure to Gov. James Thompson.

Thompson has expressed reservations about Laetrile, but has not said he would veto the bill.

Revenue challenge

(Press-Record
Springfield Bureau)

The General Assembly hasn't shown much inclination so far to challenge Gov. James Thompson's budget, but other state agencies haven't been so retiring.

State Controller Michael Bakalis and the Economic and Fiscal Commission in a so-far unofficial, but still widely distributed report, both are estimating general fund revenues for fiscal 1978, which starts July 1, will be about $800 million less than Thompson's Bureau of the Budget predicts.

Thompson's estimates also are supported by the state Chamber of Commerce.

An $80 million difference isn't a big disparity in a $4.4 billion budget. But it's still a lot of money, and plenty of interest groups are looking for their hands on a portion of it, if the legislature will go along.

State income predictions are largely based on national economic forecasts, but interpretation of those forecasts is the trick.

Bakalis says, "Our estimates are based on up-to-date economic forecasts — not views that are four months old" (like the Bureau of the Budget's figures).

Bakalis' office estimates Illinois will take in $6.427 billion, counting federal grants.

The Chamber of Commerce claims Bakalis' figures don't take Illinois economy's condition into account sufficiently.

Including federal money, its estimate of state revenues is $6.353 billion.

The Economic and Fiscal Commission says national figures are much more reliable than the forecasts, and says the Bureau of the Budget also relies on national predictions.

The commission's prediction: $6.29 billion.

The Bureau of the Budget is sticking to its guns, arguing its total of $6.347 billion is "the most likely" estimate.

Everybody agrees, however, the state's checkbook balance at the end of this fiscal year will be about $50 million — far too low.

They also agree it's time for the state to reverse the trend of the last three years and turn in a budget surplus, instead of a deficit, in fiscal 1979.

GROWING FOREIGN STEEL IMPORTS ARE A THREAT TO AMERICAN JOBS.

A*serious threat to the job security of Granite City area steelworkers and future employment opportunities for Tri-Cityans prompts us to ask for your help.

The amount of foreign steel being shipped into our country is steadily increasing. Foreign steel shipments to this country have increased 12 percent during the first 4 months of this year. At this rate, imports could reach 16 million tons in 1977 — an amount equal to the shipments of 9 plants the size of Granite City Steel.

THIS COULD BE THE BEGINNING

According to an independent study of the steel industry, the United States could see steel imports rise from 14 percent of the American market now . . . to 30 percent by 1980! If this happens, the number of American job opportunities in steel lost to imports could increase to at least 96,000.

The crux of the import problem is that foreign government-owned or subsidized steel companies are selling steel in America at discount prices, while, at the same time, they are reporting financial losses. This is a deliberate policy intended to maintain high operating rates and high employment levels in foreign steel mills at the expense of American steelworkers' jobs and American steel companies in general.

MUST WE DEPEND ON FOREIGN STEEL?

In addition to loss of potential jobs, can we Americans afford to depend upon foreign steel for 30 percent of our needs? We have found out what dependence on foreign oil sources can do to our economy and prices. Do we need to learn this lesson all over again with steel? More American jobs will be created if the American steel industry is able to expand its facilities to meet future demand, rather than have America rely on foreign mills.

WRITE PRESIDENT CARTER

By this letter we are asking you — in your own best interest — to speak up for America and to speak up for yourself. President Carter and the executive branch of the government are responsible for trade policies between nations. We are asking you to join with us in writing to the President to let him know we are concerned about our jobs, our industry, and our nation.

American steelmakers can hold their own in a fair trade fight with foreign steel. But when the opposition produces steel in government-owned or subsidized mills and sells it at a discount in America, below their costs of production, we must blow the whistle on them. Several times since his inauguration, President Carter said he welcomes your thoughts on things affecting our nation, so here's your chance to write to the President and tell him what you think about growing foreign steel imports.

LET'S HAVE A FAIR FIGHT

In a fair fight we can win — and it's up to the President to make the rules to ensure a fair and equal contest. Be sure to let him know how you feel!

JUNIOR ROCK CONCERT. A talent show is presented at Wilson School last week as part of the Granite City Park District recreation program. The talent show presented a variety of acts including an imitation of the rock group known as "Kiss." From left, in costumes the children made, are Dave Modrusick, Joe LeMaster, Stanley Jackson (partially hidden) on drums, and Dan Favier.

Cannons to roar in '1812 Overture' by Symphony at River Fest Saturday

(SIUE News Service) The "1812 Overture" is always a favorite with Pottsville of July weekend fans. The music goes well with the spirit of independence — especially the part where the cannons, preferably all 16, come thundering in a round of support for the orchestra.

And that round of support is just what festival-goers will get on Saturday at the Mississippi River Festival, held on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. "We're having South Bend Replicas, Inc. from South Bend, Ind., return to the Festival with their cannon this year and support the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra in the overture," said Lyle Ward, Festival director.

but there is something about the cannonade that steals the show. "These people have original cannon," said Ward, "and we were very impressed with their performance in 1973, the last time they appeared here for the overture."

The antique ordnance company uses "Lyle" guns, cannon used as lifesaving equipment (to fire ropes to stranded people or boats), and the cannon have seen good use at spots as varied as Cincinnati, Madison, Wis., the Blossom Music Center, St. Louis' Arch, and others, as well as the Festival site at SIUE.

One of the most important aspects of the South Bend Co.'s work is the precise timing achieved with the cannon. The shots must be fired in the right sequence, and at precisely the right time, to enhance, rather than detract from, the symphony's efforts.

"They use an electric ignition system," explained Ward, "that allows them to fire the shots at exactly the right time." And, he added, the gun placement at the Festival site "allows for the audience to see cannon fire and hear it at the same time, to good effect."

The Symphony's July 2 appearance at the Festival will be the first of six scheduled for the summer. On July 10, there will be a special Children's Festival with the Symphony, conducted by Gerhard Zimmerman, playing as Jack Carney from KMOX-radio narrates "Peter and the Wolf."

Following that date, there are four more appearances by the Symphony, culminating in the Aug. 14 appearance that will feature Henry Mancini as guest conductor.

"We think this is one of our very finest symphony seasons," said Ward. "The specials should help bring people to the site to hear the symphony and enjoy the performances. The Fourth weekend, the Children's Festival, an evening of Rodgers and Hammerstein (July 17), Henry Mancini, and more, all should appeal to families and symphony buffs alike."

Ward added that this year's ticket sales for the Symphony are well ahead of last season's, an indication that the patrons of the MRP are as happy with this summer's scheduling as he is. Festival-goers are being reminded that alcohol and glass containers are prohibited at the Festival site.

Canning tips for fresh peas

By JANETTE MUELLER
Home Economics Adviser

The peak season for fresh garden green peas is here. The best quality peas are young, tender, sweet, and freshly picked.

They are at their best if served the same day they are harvested.

Refrigerate fresh pea pods, uncovered, immediately after gathering or purchase. Shell and use peas as soon as possible for best flavor. Fresh peas, especially shelled ones, lose quality rapidly when handled carelessly.

But if you have grown or bought more peas than you can eat fresh, plan to preserve them so you and your family can enjoy garden vegetables all year round.

Some people like to can garden peas. The pea is a low acid food and like all other vegetables (except tomatoes) must be processed in a pressure canner at 10 pounds pressure (240 degrees F.).

Leaving one-inch headspace at the top, pack raw or preheated peas into canning jars. Cover peas with boiling water. Follow pressure canner instruction books for operating procedure. Process pints or quarts for 40 minutes.

To freeze shelled peas, blanch them just as you blanch all vegetables before freezing. Bring one gallon of water to a boil. Put one quart of fresh green peas in a colander, perforated basket or sieve and place in boiling water. Cover and start timing immediately.

Heat water throughout blanching process. Leave peas in the water for 1½ minutes. Remove them from the water and chill immediately in a large container of ice water, or under cold running water. Chilling is necessary to stop the cooking action.

Drain the peas and pack them into moisture-vapor-proof freezer containers. Leave half-inch headspace at the top if you are using rigid containers. Seal with air-tight lid, label with name of product and date.

Freeze in coldest part of the freezer. You should store frozen peas at 0 degrees F., and keep them in the freezer no longer than eight months.

For more information on preserving foods Quad-Cityans may contact the Madison County Cooperative Extension Service at 656-4862.

CB'ers win awards at jamboree

The Pottsville Citizens Band Radio Club, a local group, won two trophies this week at the annual jamboree sponsored by the Indian Creek CB Club in Prairieville, Ill.

Twenty-four adults and 22 children attended the jamboree, according to Ron Rolan of Madison, club president, whose CB handle (nickname) is Whitehead.

Members from here were honored with awards for being the "best dressed" club at the event and for having the most children present. The Pottsville Club has been in existence only four months, Rolan said, having received its charter in March.

The membership roster already boasts 75 individuals, he added. All CB'ers and visitors are invited to attend our meetings and breaks, Rolan advised.

The club meets on the third Sunday of each month at Granite City Moose Lodge 272, 19th and Adams streets.

Informal coffee breaks are held every Sunday at 7 p.m. at the Taco Bandit, 2212 Nameoki Road, the club officer said.

2 HURT ON CYCLE

William Krug, 20, and Susan Krug, 19, of 2426 Dewey Ave., were admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital at 7:10 p.m. Sunday after being injured in a motorcycle accident. An old wound on his left knee was broken open and she suffered cuts and contusions and abrasions to her knees.

Est. Cor. 13-8—Love never fades...

It is said that honey catches more flies than vinegar. It is true. Just as it is true that love covers a multitude of sins. Not only will your life be happier, but those around you will also be happier. It is just as easy to love as it is to hate. Remember this: a soft answer turns away wrath. If we practice love and discipline ourselves it is bound to return to us.

If you have experienced the great love that God has for all of us then it will be easier to put into practice for those around us. Love never fails! When you have tried all that you know to do then try love. Give love for hate. Love all those who persecute you, in love turn the other cheek.

Love God first, thy neighbor as thyself, and you will not fail.

Do It, Today.

A great performer:

With RCA's new XtendedLife chassis—designed to perform better, last longer than any previous 19" diagonal XL-100 chassis.

Lower Power Consumption

This means lower stress on chassis components than in prior XL-100 chassis. Actually uses less energy on average than a 100-watt bulb!

Cooler Operation

The cooler the chassis, the greater its inherent reliability. And the XtendedLife chassis runs significantly cooler than the chassis it replaces.

Automatic Color Control and Fleshtone Correction System

Works to keep colors consistent from program to program, channel to channel. Also gives you natural fleshtones and natural background colors side by side.

LIMITED 6 MONTH REPLACEMENT
LIMITED 48 MONTH PRO-RATA ADJUSTMENT WARRANTY
Should any Premium 48 battery fail (not merely discharge) within the designated replacement period, the battery may be returned by the original owner to K mart for replacement at no charge upon presentation of sales receipt. After the replacement period but before the expiration date of the warranty, K mart will replace a failed battery in the original owner, charging only for the period of ownership, based on current regular price (not sale price) at the time K mart is presented over the total warranted months, by battery type. This warranty does not apply to batteries which have been damaged, misused, or commercially used by the purchaser.
